Special Farm Program Over NBC Thursday to Originate Here

Mary Parker, the glamorous Donna Cavendish of the daily "Howie Wing" aviation serial on CBS, was the 23rd girl to audition for the role. The day before she got the job she had decided to leave New York, give up trying to find acting assignments and go home to Manchester, New Hampshire.

Leaders in the Farmers' Educational and Cooperative union will be heard in a special broadcast on the National Farm and Home hour, at 11:30 a. m. Thursday over NBC-WIBA-WMAQ. The program will originate in Madison, scene of the national convention of the organization. John Vesecky, Salina, Kans., national president of the Farmers' Union, will be among the speakers.

Tonight's headliners, classified:

Dramatic

7 p. m. — Gang Busters (WBBM): story of the "Maryland Rogue Killer."

8 p. m. — Your Health (WENR): "Healthful Play."

8:30 p. m.—Wings for the Martins (WENR): new series.

◊ ◊ ◊

Musical

Fan Fare

The sponsor has renewed Eddie Cantor's series for an additional 26 weeks effective with the Jan. 2 broadcast. Program continues to air over 89 CBS stations same times as present.

CBS is auditioning a new variety show with comic Billy Gilbert as the star, aimed for oil sponsorship.

Paul Whiteman will do a series of stage appearances in Schenectady, N. Y., Nov. 17-19. Whiteman and his band played at the annual dinner of the Society of Automotive Engineers at New York's Hotel Commodore on Nov. 14.

Don Quinn, Fibber McGee author, cracked the other day that road shows these days should be known as rodent shows, what with "Of Mice and Men," "Brother Rat," and "Mickey Mouse" going the rounds.

Lum and Abner, the perennial comics, have been renewed for another 17-week stretch, taking them through May 1.

Father Flannagan, the founder of Boys' Town, may be the next radio star. A deal to put the priest on the air is rumored near the signing stage.

Tommy Riggs lived up to the show-must-go-on tradition last Saturday night when he did his and Betty Lou's broadcast in great pain as the result of a badly impacted wisdom tooth which became infected following an extraction . . . a doubly bad predicament for a quick-voice-change artist.

Season's Records Fall in Four Pin Leagues

Season records were established in four city bowling leagues Tuesday night. Arlo Ahrensmeyer rattled out a new three game series of 647 in the Tavern league at the Arcade alleys on games of 194, 218 and 235.

George Lester gave the next best solo exhibition when he hit 630 for a new high in the Auto Supply circuit on 218, 196 and 216. The Cliquot Club smashed out 2,760 on 938, 871 and 951 which displaced the previous top in the Capital City session.

Karstens' Clothiers completed record scoring by totaling 2,645 in the Merchants league on 848, 891 and 906. Mrs. Iza Quinn was well on her way to a new Eagles Ladies season mark when she opened with 209 and 202, but a poor closing attempt of 143 held her to 554.

Four other pin knights succeeded in rolling up 600 counts. Russ Bartholomew and Sam Schwartz chalked up 622 and 602 in the Plaza Commercial and Roger Newby and Ossie Prien totaled 613 and 604 in the Capital City.
