Short Wave Sunday

She's only 19, but folks around the CBS studios are calling Ethel Blume the "Most Married Actress on the Airwaves." Off-hand, Ethel can think of at least eight times she has gone to the altar (in the script) although she hasn't yet gotten around to exchanging any vows in real life. You can hear Miss Blume getting her man on the "Grand Cen-tral Station" sketches over the Columbia network Friday nights. In the past, Ethel has been "married" on "Joyce Jor-dan—Girl Interne," "Peggy's

Doctor," "Little Italy," "Way Down East," "Buck Rogers in

Other Wife," "Easy Aces" and "David Harum," the 25th Century,"

Racket Swinging Tennis Star to Swing Songs

NEW YORK- (INS) -America's top feminine racket swinger will forsake temporarily the tennis courts to assume a new role, that of the swinger of popular songs. She is Alice Marble who makes her singing debut Thursday at the Waldorf-Astoria.

They're going to be skeptical and I want to be much better than they expect me to be," the blonde champion of the courts said Saturday. She's expecting a much different feeling facing a microphone than in facing a tennis net, but doesn't believe she'll be scared.

"Every champion is fundamentally an exhibitionist. We like to display our best to the public," she added.

Miss Marble, winner of five of the six major tennis titles this year, has been taking singing lessons for some time.
"I started serious lessons this fall," she said, "and the offer to take the place of Corbina Wright, Jr., at the hotel came out of a clear sky. But of course, I'm thrill-

She was planning a radio career this winter but she is also interested in the movies and her screen tests have been satisfactory.
