Club Opens

Tenth Season The Madison Curling club open-ed its 10th season this weekend at the club house on E. Washington ave, and plans one of its most active seasons,

The club intends to hold several tournaments here and also plans to participate in bonspiels at La Crosse, St. Paul, Duluth, Portage, and Milwaukee.

Officers of the Madison club are Ray Blied, president; E. L. Roettiger, vice-president, and W. J. Reese, secretary-treasurer.
Members of the board of directors are W. G. McKay, H. C. Jamieson, W. J. Reese, W. O. Trettin, Ceorge J. Barker, Gil W. Bach, Ray Blied, Dr. L. F. Rundell, and E. L. Roettiger. The rink house has a glassed enclosed observation room. Anyone wishing to watch the curlers is welcome. There are four players to a rink the captain of which is known as the "skip." The ice lanes are about 40 yards long. The object is to put "stone," weighing no more than 42 pounds, within the circle at the opposite end of the ice lane; if the stone is in the circle an opponent will try to knock it out. The "skip" gives orders where to place the stones and when to sweep with brooms.

Ithaca Rallies to Win
Coach Jued's Ithaca team trailed Sextonville, 14-7, at the third quarter, then uncorked a brilliant fourth quarter rally to win. Three baskets by Keller and one each baskets by Keller and one each by German and Rentz made up Ithaca's point total in the final period. Charles Barnett, center, led Sextonville with nine points; Keller was high for Ithaca with six.

Bob Davidson's Lime Ridge team came from behind to defeat Cazenovia, which led 5-1 at the quarter. The winners held Cazenovia, which led 5-1 at the grant and the six of the six o

The listings of H. M. Brigham and A. H. Jacobson in the classified section of Wednesday's State Journal, under the heading of Open House founds should prove most interesting to the prospective purchaser of a none. Not only is the price of one house stated, but approximate location is given and some of the desirable features are enumerated. This enables the interested parties to determine in advance whether or not they might be interested and should result in a considerable saving in time for both parties.
