A curtailed program of two games will be played in the South Central high school conference basketball race this week with Viroqua being the only one of the two remaining unbeaten teams staking its record in jeopardy. Viroqua shares the lead with La-Crosse Logan, each possessing two straight wins. Portage is at Reedsburg Thurs-distinct favorite in view of its fine play in registering its two league wins and Richland Center's apparent lack of shooting ability. However, anything can happen in the small Richland Center gym and the Centerites may spring a surprise. Reedsburg is favored over Portage.

Bob Meyer, Reedsburg's star center leads the league individual scoring race after two rounds of play. He had netted 18 points, leading Buford Durden of Viro-qua and Jim Fleming of Sparta who have 16 points each. Statis-

Here's a Moaning Title Match CAN FRANCISCO — (INS)

University of California and Georgia Tech football squads plunged into serious practice schedules today in preparation for their game in Berkeley Sunday, while rival coaches competed in a match for the unofficial moaning championship of the world. Watching his Yellowjackets iron out the travel kinks, Bill

Alexander, the Georgia crying colonel, declared:
"We haven't a chance to beat California."

Across the bay in Berkeley, Bear Coach Stub Allison, alias Weeping Willie, intoned: "Scrimmage has been terrible. I think we'll have to shake up the

Romoni's hand in token of victory

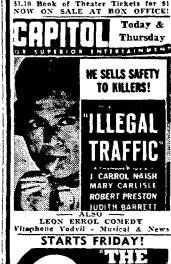

Then Celli rushed up, shoved Romoni aside and pasted a terrific right upper-cut on Referee Galletti's jaw. He took the full count but when he woke up he had the last laugh.

As Celli clambered from the ring, Galletti grabbed his arm. 'You're under arrest," he said

Celli unfortunately had forgotten a recent government decree which gave police powers to all sports officials.
