End of One Year, Beginning Of Another, on Air Tonight

William Janney is the young actor who flies through the air-waves as Aviator "Howie Wing." To get the proper feeling for the part, Bill has started taking flying lessons at Floyd Bennett field. He is the son of Russell Janney, producer of "The Vagabond King," and began his acting career at the age of 10. appearing with Glenn Hunter in "Merton of the Movies." Later Bill went to Hollywood and was seen in more then 70 moving pictures. His midio series, "Howie Wing, the Adventures of a Young Aviator,' is heard over the Columbia network Mondays through Fridays.

There was a co-ed and a cotton boll boutonniere for each St. Mary's player who alighted from the train this morning, and Dallas showered the town with its own brand of "snow" in a reception for the visiting Californians. The co-eds, most of them from Southern Methodist university, showered the visitors with kisses, and cotton aerial bombs rained on the downtown district.

Coach Slip Madigan of the Gaels hustled his players away from the fanfare as soon as possible and ordered a long workout in the Coton Bowl stadium.

When a train carrying cattle arrived at Piedsted, Jutland, a car door was found open and a cow was missing, but the bossy ambled into the station unburt hours later, having walked there without assistance.
