Air Parade Led Today By 'Magic Key' Show Presenting Laughton

Reviews and previews head radio's offerings today. The march of events of 1938 will be reviewed and dramatized on several programs and a preview of what the networks will offer for the new year will be heard.

NEC's "Magic Key" heads today's parade with a two-hour program, originating in New York, Washington, London, with pickups from six other foreign lands. The program will be aired through stations WIBA, WMAQ, WENR, and WTMJ at 1 p. m.

The "Keys" show will include a dramatization by Charles Laughton, and his wife, Elsa Lanhester; president, music by Kristen Flagstad, Ezio Piana, Dr. Walter Damrosch, and Larry Clinton's orchestra, and comedy by Olsen and Johnson.
