Radio News and Programs

When you hear the organ playing the strain of "Eleanor" over the Columbia network every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, you know it's the introduction to another of the popular "Lum and Abner" dramatic sketches which now have been heard on the airlanes for eight years. What you may not know is that it is being played by this attractive young lady, whose name is Sybil Chism.

U.S. Control of Railroads Urged

(Copyright, 1938, by United Press) CLEVELAND —(U.P.)— Solution to the financial plight of the nation's $26,000,000,000 railroad ining company to finance them and seize their control from bankers, the president of the largest railway brotherhood told the United Press today.

Alexander F. Whitney, President of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, claiming 135,000 members among the nation's railworkers, urged the coming congress to stretch the recommendations of President Roosevelt's rehabilitation committee and perform "a major operation of some sort."

Assailing the bankers for "milking" the roads to the brink of collapse, Whitney said that they "feel that because they've loaned money to the railroads they have a right to dictate what should be

He said a government holding company, financing the compan ies' recovery at reduced interest rates, thus taking financing from bankers, would "go a long way toward what we want." Three toward what we want." Three per cent bonds, backed by the government, could cover such financing, he said. Referring to the presidential committee's plan, Whitney said it "would only pro tect further milking".

The government, he said, must take "definite action" on the "problem of bankers' control."

Meanwhile, David B. Robertson, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineering ginemen, who was a member of Hatton, Evansville.

Roosevelt's railroad committee, Funeral services will be held promised the support of his followers to the committee's legis-

The Killdeer gets its name from the sound of its cry. It is a common summer resident in Wisconsin, breeding in all parts of the state, far up into Canada and as far south as South America. This bird is another good farmhand and a single brood will relieve a farm of an enormous number of insects daily. Its food includes grasshoppers, locusts, weevils, cutworms, wireworms, grubs, beetles, earthworms, and mosquito lar-

In Wisconsin the Killdeer is common everywhere except in the deep forests. It is fond of mudflats and muddy shores of shallow lakes but is often found on uplands in pastures,
