Browns May Be an Orphan Club

BOSTON.—(INS)—The problem child of the American league is the St. Louis Browns—and it may become an orphan club, league Pres. Will Harridge had intimated today on a visit to Boston when he said: "The condition of the St. Louis club is giving us some concern. The present owners are somewhat discouraged and we may have a orphan on our hands."

Harridge told a story about a would-be purchaser of the western club who lost interest in the matter when he went out to see the club play a doubleheader one Sunday. There were less than 300 spectators, Harridge said.

Cassels, Chicago Captain, Eligible

CHICAGO.—(UP)—Jim Cassels, captain and forward of the University of Chicago basketball team, became eligible Friday and will play against Minnesota tonight in the opening game of the Big Ten campaign.

Hollandale Loses at Free Throw Line

HOLLANDALE.—Inability to sink free throws cost Hollandale high school's basketball team a victory here Friday night. Coach Ken Holt's cagers missed 13 of 19 free shots and dropped a close 14-12 decision to Barneveld in a non-league game.

Barneveld took a 6-3 lead in the first quarter and held the lead throughout the game, although the home team narrowed the score to a single point midway in the last period. Billy Kvernen, Barneveld forward, led the scoring with seven points.

Hollandale second stringers defeated the Barneveld "B" team, 15-12, in the preliminary game and All's Five of Madison defeated the Hollandale city team in the aftermath, 49-49. Box score: HOLLANDALE BARNEVELD

Duke Is Given Riotous Welcome

DURHAM, N. C.—(UP)—A yelling crowd of 6,000 Friday gave Duke university's Blue Devils a rousing home-coming and five minutes later there was talk of Duke's meeting Southern California in the Rose Bowl next year.

Three bands were at union station when the Blue Devils' special train pulled in from Pasadena, and although the Duke's 7-3 to the Trojans in the Rose Bowl, it took a 30-man police squadron 30 minutes to take the team through the throng of backslappers.

An "official" welcoming at the university was delayed nearly an hour as Coach Wallace Wade and the Devils struggled through the crowd to get to the special automobiles that were to carry them to the university.

Co-Captains Eric Tipton and Dan Hill were all but mobbed by autograph seekers who had forgotten that Duke lost the game and remembered only that "Duke won the first 50 minutes of the game" and "then it took four teams to beat them."

Prairie du Sac in Rally to Win, 17-11

PRAIRIE DU SAC.—Making a second half comeback, Coach Johnny Cole's Prairie du Sac high school basketball team pulled into a four-way tie with Arena, Waukegan, and Lodi in the Tri-County league standings here Friday night by besting its keenest rival, Sauk City, 17-11.

Prairie du Sac played inconsistent ball in the first half as it led at the quarter, 3-2, and trailed at the intermission, 8-4, but hit its stride late in the third period to win. After tying the score at 10-all midway in the third and thenperid and then trailing, 11-10, the Blackshirts held the losers scoreless the rest of the way.

Sparking the Blackshirt offensive were Gibbs Zauft and Warren Hart, the former leading the scoring with nine points. Melvin Bickford also glittered, tallying five markers. Del Lerner and Malcolm Plernot stood out for Sauk.

Sauk City's second team nipped Prairie du Sac's reserves, 14-13, in an overtime preliminary game. Box score: PRAIRIE DU SAC SAUK CITY

Who's Who Among Wisconsin Birds

LESSER YELLOW LEGS

The Lesser Yellow-legs is like the Greater Yellow-legs in plumage but much smaller. It has bright yellow legs and a large amount of white on the rear of its body and tail, separating it from other sandpipers. It is gray, spotted with white.

It is one of the most common of Wisconsin waders, frequenting mudflats about water.

It is a common spring and fall migrant through the state, many non-breeding birds remaining through the summer but they do not nest here. It breeds from Alaska east through northern Canada to Ungava south to north British Columbia, Alberta and southern Manitoba. In winter it goes as far as the southern half of South America.

Its food consists of grasshoppers, flies, ants, water boatmen, worms, crustaceans, etc.
