Fires, missing persons. murders - and eventually a big "beat" on a jury decision, form the background for the romantic comedy drama "Front Page Woman" with MacMurray and Miss Goddard in the leading roles. The climax involves an amusing trick by which Devlin outwits his feminine rival by persuading her that the jury decision is just the opposite of what it really is.

The story is based on the struggle between railroad and the stage coach lines for supremacy in the western movement in Maryland during the 1850's. One of the most amusing families ever to menace a bankroll belonging to someone else, is seen in the hilarious romantic comedy, The Young at Heart" which is showing at the Sigma theatre. Douglas Fairbanks Jr., Janet Gaynor, Billie Burke, Roland Young and Paulette Goddard are the stars of this production, "Test Pilot," one of the season's unique story of a wife who after losing her husband was not content to let well enough alone, is the second State picture. A new trio, Herbert Marshall, Virginia Bruce and Mary Astor comprise the principal cast. Fredric March as a swash-
