Edward G. Robinson Once Again Enacts Role Of Racket-Busting Editor; Claire Trevor Lady In Case

"Set a Spy," a timely dramatization involving an espionage ring, serves as the second of Edward, G. Robinson's "Big Town" vehicles from New York over WABC Tuesday

The story revolves around the theft of blueprints of an anti-aircraft gun, the murder of an army captain and a thrilling airplane sequence in which the pilot bails out in mid-air leaving his two passengers to die. Robinson onceagain enacts the role of Steve Wilson, courageous, racket-

Delightful Comedy Showing On Sigma Theatre Screen

"The Young In Heart" Stars Many Favorites; Taylor And Beery Teamed In Ohio's

Tuesday is the final day for the showing of "The Young mether fends in company bosons, in Heart" at the Sigma theatre. In the stellar cast of this nated, the caremering at the touch romentic comedy are seen such favorites as Janet Gaynor, of a button, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Billie Burke, Roland Young and the market on a production basis.

All the elements of the most exciting western are embodied in the story of rugged men who fought for their rights during the 1850's and which is now showing at the Ohio theatre. "Stand Up and Fight" is the title and it stars Robert Taylor, Wallace Beery and Florence Rice.

"There's That Woman Agam" the delightful sequel to "There's Always a Woman" which is now showing at the Quilna theatre co-stars Virginia Bruce and Melvyn Douglas in the roles of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Reardon, private detectives on the trail of jewel robbers and murderers.

Tuesday also marks the final day for the showing of the two excellent pictures at the State theatre. Clark Gable, Myrna Loy and Spencer Tracy hear the cast in 'Test Pilot" and Herbert Marshall, Mary Astor and Virginia Bruce form the trio in "Woman Fredric March is seen in the role of the pirate who helped Andrew Jackson win the New Orleans territory of America in the stirring drama, "The Buccaneer" which is one of the double features at the Lyric theatre. Franciska Gaal is the new leading lady.

"Telephone Operator" starring Judith Allen is the second Lyric offering.

OHIO

The western comes into its own in a brand new locale in "Stand| Up and Fight," with Wallace Beery and Robert Taylor teamed for the Hale and Pierre Watkin. Alexfirst time as protagonists of a new type of outdoor action drama which bids fair to set a precedent in film

The picture, current at the Ohio theatre, presents to filmgoers western Maryland in the 1850's, with the bitter struggle between the railroad and stage coach lines forming the theme of a stirring story which combines all the elements of the best of the alwayspopular westerns with an authentic iistorical background. Moving at breathless pace, with, hand-to-hand battles, gun fights, wagon wrecks, jail dynamitings and saloon brawls studding the action, 'Stand up and Fight the vigorous connotation of title. Beery and Taylor are in fine fettle. Beery typical in a madeto-order role as the hardboiled manager of the stage coach line. and Taylor combining the romantic and the two-fisted.

A new leading lady for Taylor, Florence Rice, proves herself once and for all a most charming and able actress in this, her finest opportunity to date. The dry wit of Helen Broderick and villainy of Charles Bickford and Barton Macere add notable flavor, while such Qualen and Robert Gleckler are Concord club will meet Tuesday ward, of Detroit, Mich., the honor memorable in support. W. S. Van Dyke's direction is incisive.
