A court battle over the Madison relief department's campaign to rid the city of its non-resident relief clients is being planned by Rock county, to which two Madison families were ordered returned Thursday by Superior Judge Roy

H. Proctor.

sistant district attorney representing the Rock county welfare de-partment, plans to obtain reviews certiorari to subject them to review by a higher court.

The two orders signed by Proctor cut off city relief from a mothlegal residence, Edgerton, and the latter similarly to Beloit.

non-resident cases, respectively, to be heard by the judge during the past two weeks under proceedings instituted by Thomas J.
