Rosalind Russell Carded As Guestar With Bob Hope

Woman Honor Student To Tell Why She's Going To Be Policewoman; Pharmacists To Face Druggists' Wives

Hope and Russell, "snappy patter," will be the billing of radio's newest comedy team when Rosalind Russell does a one-night stand on the Bob Hope show, Tuesday, via WEAF at 10 p. m. Miss Russell will need all the talents that won for her the critics' award for her emoting in "The Citadel" when Professor Jerry Colonna gives her a sample of his "double talk" and Patricia "Honeychile" Wilder chimes in with her southern drawl. "Skinnay" Ennis and his orchestra, and the "Six Hits and a Miss" will back up the program musically.

If New York's criminal element puts up a squawk at being arrested by ordinary male policemen during months to come, it will be because they are waiting to be pinched by a pulchritudinous Phi Beta Kappa, Gertrude Tannenbaum, who will tell why she's going to be a cop on the "We, The People" broadcast over WABC Tuesday at 9:00 p. m.

Others to be interviewed by Gabriel Heatter on the program will include Jim Crowley, Fordham university football coach, just back from France where he introduced American football to the continent; Theodore Weiss Hardeen, a brother of the famous Harry Houdini, and Mrs. Richard Powell, recently selected "Mrs. Typical Customer", at a convention of retail store executives.

Miss Tannenbaum is a Hunter college senior. Despondent over the lack of variety, glamour or excitement in a career as an English teacher, she recently took an examination for work in the New York police department. She passed in third place among three thousand candidates for positions as lady cops. Now waiting for her appointment, she is looking forward to some day becoming a detective.

Benny Goodman and Joseph Szigeti scored a recent hit at New York's Carnegie Hall when they introduced Bela Bartok's "Rhapsody for Clarinet and Violin and Piano." They will join forces again when they appear on Benny's "Swing School," Tuesday, over WABC at 9:30 p. m. In addition to Szigeti, Johnny Mercer will be on hand to guide the program, bring the trio, quartet and Martha Tilton to the mike.

A team of pharmacists will face a team of women whose husbands are druggists on the Battle of the Sexes program, conducted by Frank Crumit and Julia Sanderson, over WEAF Tuesday at 9:00 p. m. The unrelated contestants were selected in order to avoid connubial repercussions. Harold Hutchins, editor of the American Druggist, arranged the match.

Fibber McGee will have the sympathy of every male listener when, on his final program from Chicago before departing for Hollywood, he finds that his last clean shirt is minus every button, Tuesday, via WEAF at 9:30 p. m. In appreciation for the swell time he had in Chicago, Donald Novis sings "Thanks For Everything." The Four Notes swing "Ferdinand the Bull" and Billy Tills and the orchestra find "There's a New Sun in the Sky" and "This is It."

Secretary of War Harry H. Woodring and Stephen F. Chadwick, National Commander of the American Legion, will be heard over WJZ Tuesday from 9:30 to 10:00 p. m.

The speakers will be heard addressing the National Defense Conference, in session at the Mayflower Hotel, Washington, D. C. Thirty-nine organizations are participating in the conference which is under the auspices of the American Legion Auxiliary. It also marks the 14th annual Women's Patriotic Conference.

Mrs. James Morris, national president of the American Legion Auxiliary and chairman of the conference, will introduce the speakers.

HOEWISCHER WILL IS ADMITTED TO PROBATE

(Lima News Bureau)

WAPAKONETA, Jan. 24 — The last will and testament of Bado Hoewischer, late director of safety and service of the city of St. Marys, was admitted to record Monday in Auglaize-co probate court by Judge Harry Wittenbrink.

The instrument bequeathed all property, real and personal, to his widow, Myrtle, during the remainder of her life or until remarriage. After that the property is to be divided equally between a son, Eugene, and a daughter, Naomi Rowlands. The estate was reported as having an estimated value of slightly more than $5,000.

The widow was named as executrix without bond and Henry Kooper, Carl Ike and Edward Yoder were appointed appraisers. The will was dated April 25, 1938, and was witnessed by Fred Seibert and Jeanette Deitsch.

PILOT KILLED ON TEST TRIP

Lightweight Bombing Plane Built For U. S. Crashes And Burns

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 24—(INS)—A mass of charred ruins was all that remained today of a new type lightweight bombing plane, designed for the U. S. army, but not yet accepted.

The plane, a twin-motored, low-wing attack bomber, capable of high speed, crashed during an experimental flight near the Los Angeles municipal airport yesterday, leaving one man dead, another seriously injured, 10 persons suffering minor hurts and a dozen automobiles wrecked.

John Cable, chief test pilot for the Douglas Aircraft Corp. plants at Inglewood and Santa Monica, was instantly killed when he made a desperate leap for life from the spinning plane, his parachute failing to open in time.

At the Santa Monica hospital, with a fractured leg and severe cuts and bruises, was Paul Chemidlin, 33, said to have arrived on Sunday from Paris as a representative of the French government. He was with Pilot Cable on the flight that ended in tragedy and was dragged from the wreckage by rescuers.

Douglas company officials insisted Chemidlin was a mechanic named "Smithm," but his identity as an agent of the French air ministry was said to be positive.

The plane, an experimental type, was, it was realiably reported, being prepared secretly for U. S. army tests at Dayton, O., but company executives would make no comment.

JOB BENEFIT PAYMENTS TO START IN MONTH

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 24—(UP)—Benefit payments to eligible unemployed workers will begin early in February, the Ohio Unemployment Compensation commission announced today.

To handle the large number of approved claims the commission has set up a system to mail warrants to a designated number on each day of the week. Recipients will receive their warrants on certain "pay days" for the maximum of 16 weeks.

Eligible persons are those who worked in any 20 weeks in 1938 for an employer covered by the unemployment compensation law. They may receive one-half of their weekly wage, with $15 per week as the maximum, for a period of 16 weeks.

Also persons eligible under partial employment will receive from ten to forty per cent of their average weekly wage.

50 DISMISSED BY DIRECTOR OF AGRICULTURE

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 24—(UP)—Dismissal of more than 50 employes of the state department of agriculture has brought a net reduction of $73,280 in the department's payroll, Agriculture Director John T. Brown announced today.

Gross reduction in payroll was $92,920 but $19,640 of this was restored by addition of new employes, it was explained.

Dismissal of unnecessary employes, consolidation of divisions and reduction of over-lapping duties made the reductions possible without impairing service, Brown said.

AUGLAIZE WILL SEND 100 TO FARMERS WEEK

(Lima News Bureau)

WAPAKONETA, Jan. 24 — Organization of a group of more than 100 farmers from Auglaize-co to attend the annual Ohio State Farmers Week to be held next week at Ohio State university, Columbus, was started today by Clarence D. Brown, county agent, and Miss Jessie Bourne, county home demonstration agent.

Persons not having means of transportation are requested to register at the county extension office in the courthouse. Those having cars and desirous of additional passengers are requested to do the same. Brown said that efforts would be made to create a new attendance record from this county. The record is 75, who were present at last year's event.

CITY, CARRIERS WILL DISCUSS DANGER POINTS

First of a series of conferences between city officials and representatives of railroad companies in the interest of strengthening protection at city grade crossings has been tentatively set for Friday evening.

Friday's session will be with officials of the Pennsylvania railroad. The meeting has been scheduled for 7:30 p. m. at city hall.

In commenting on opening of negotiations with the railroads, members of council said they have no idea of doing away with watchmen in favor of flasher signals. The flasher, they said, enters the picture only in cases where watchmen go off duty at a certain hour and where no protection is being given at present.

Subsequent meetings will be held with officials of other railroads operating thru Lima.

EAGLES BURN MORTGAGE

KENTON, Jan. 24—John Cochrane, chairman of the grand lodge activities committee, will be the principal speaker when members of the Kenton Elks lodge celebrate the "burning of the mortgage" on their home here on Thursday. The affair will get under way with a turkey dinner at 6:30 p. m. and after the banquet a class of candidates will be initiated. A social meeting is planned after the lodge session.

Ohio To Offer Fast-Moving Story Of Newspaper Life

Second Of "Annabel" Series Scheduled For Sigma Screen; Quilna Offers Preview Wednesday Evening

"Off the Record," a fast moving newspaper story starring Joan Blondell, Pat O'Brien and Bobby Jordan, one of the Dead End Kids, is scheduled to open at the Ohio on Wednesday.

Tuesday is the final day for the showing of the "Cowboy and the Lady," the western romance comedy starring Gary Cooper and Merle Oberon at the Ohio.

Opening Wednesday on the Sigma screen is the second in the hilarious "Annabel" series in which Lucille Ball and Jack Oakie are co-starred. The title of this bit of nonsense is "Annabel Takes a Tour."

Also on the new Sigma bill will be "The Storm," a stirring tale of men who go to sea and risk their lives for others. Preston Foster has one of the leading roles.

Showing for the last times Tuesday at the Sigma is the all-technicolor extravaganza, "Drums," starring Sabu the Indian boy.

A preview at the Quilna Wednesday night marks the opening of the picture theatre-goers have been waiting to see, "Jesse James," starring Tyrone Power, Henry Fonda and Nancy Kelly.

Currently featured at the Quilna are the two films, "Girls' School," and Nan Grey and Anne Shirley, and "Fight to Fame," starring Charles Farrell and Jacqueline Wells.

Tuesday is also the closing day for the two hits now at the State. "Four Daughters," starring the Lane Sisters, Priscilla, Rosemary, and Lola, and Gale Page is the first picture, and "Fast Company," the gay romantic mystery with Melvyn Douglas and Florence Rice, is the other.

Both Nelson Eddy and Jeanette MacDonald are cast in unusual roles in the current Lyric feature, "The Girl of the Golden West," in which Walter Pidgeon and Buddy Ebsen are see also.

Cary Grant and Katharine Hepburn are co-starred in the other Lyric picture, "Holiday," a very unusual story about three young people.

SIGMA

Rivalry between two glamorous movie stars over ontoriety in the newspapers brings about uproarious complications in the Sigma's "Annabel Takes a Tour," Starring Jack Oakie and Lucille Ball, this is the second film in the "Annabel" series about Hollywood life, with Oakie as the trigger-quick press agent, and Miss Ball as the fiery movie star.

Because Frances Mercer, a rival actress, wins all kinds of front-page publicity as a result of a romance with a titled foreigner, Annabel (Lucille Ball) decides that her press agent must find her a nobleman.

Telling an emotional story of adventure and thrills in the lives of wireless operators on American merchant ships, the production of "The Storm" opens Wednesday at the Sigma theatre.

Filmed against the colorful background of giant ships and thundering storms at sea, the narrative possesses power and realism.

Top-flight performances are turned in by the cast of popular stars, which includes Charles Bickford, Barton MacLane, Preston Foster, Tom Brown, Nan Grey, Andy Devine and Frank Jenks.

Sweeping across the screen with unusual force, the screenplay by Theodore Reeves, Daniel Moore and Hugh King unfolds as one of the most virile action dramas to come out of Hollywood in recent months.

OHIO

"Off the Record," a hot off-the-griddle newspaper story will be the next feature attraction at the Ohio theatre starting Wednesday. Pat O'Brien and Joan Blondell, who were teamed so successfully in "Back In Circulation," are co-starred again in the lively drama of two star reporters who fall in love.

"Off the Record" is, however, far removed from the usual run of newspaper pictures because its interest is not limited to the professional exploits of its central characters. It has an unusual theme, which evolves from the warmly human side of the otherwise hard and cynical newspaper woman portrayed by Miss Blondell, for it is her successful effort to reform and rehabilitate a tough little street gamin portrayed by Bobby Jordan, the erstwhile "Angel" of the "Dead End" sextette.

After the kid played by Bobby has been orphaned by the death of his mother, he lives with his elder brother, a small-time bookmaker in the employ of the city's gambling czar. Bobby gets a job with the gambling boss too, his task being to take care of the interests of his boss around pin and marble machines in which schoolboys gamble their lunch money.

QUILNA

An attack of indigestion which brought on a fainting spell ruined the incognito act of Maxine Marx, young daughter of Chico Marx, who had obtained a dancing role in the romantic comedy "Girls' School" without parental influence or consent. Miss Marx, under the name of Maxine Stephens, appears in support of Anne Shirley, Ralph Bellamy and Nan Grey in the film now at the Quilna theatre.

Not even Director John Brahm knew that the pretty Miss Stephens was a daughter of one of the noted Marx brothers. Only two of Maxine's personal friends, also working in the picture, were aware of her identity.

These girls, when Maxine suffered a fainting spell, became excited and told the set nurse who she was. True to the thespian training of her theatrical family, however, Maxine, after recovering, refused to go home. She finished the day like the proverbial trouper.

"Flight to fame," a thrilling romantic aviation drama featuring Charles Farrell and Jacqueline Wells, is also at the Quilna theatre. Reportedly one of the most exciting and dramatic films in many months, "Flight to Fame" presents Farrell as a daredevil army pilot.

The plot revolves around the invention of a mysterious "death ray" gun which turns flying planes into flaming ruins.

The world's most unique weapon figures prominently in "Flight to Fame." It is a "death ray" gun, patterned after designs on which several scientists are now at work. The gun "fires" an electronic beam and this beam effects metal much like a blow torch.

Jason Robards, Frederick Burton, Alexander D'Arcy, Addison Richards, Chas. D. Brown, Hugh Sothern and Ed Stanley head the supporting cast of "Flight to Fame." C. C. Coleman, Jr. directed, from an original screenplay by Michael L. Simmons.

Operators controlling 7,500 acres of land in the vicinity of Sanford, N. C., announced early in 1939 that large scale coal mining would be resumed in that region.
