Fall River Takes Lead as Cambria Upsets Randolph

Cambria high school's basketball team rocked the Columbia County Little Seven league with the biggest upset of the season Friday night, surprising Randolph, 19-15, and dropping out of first place in the heated title fight. Randolph's downfall and its own arrow 23-20 win over Poynette's defending champions. Fall River today holds the undisputed lead. Fox Lake jumped into undisputed third place in the third loop Walter Landsverk with five points, ran up a 32-22 win. Cambria Takes Fifth

Coach William (Chub) Hatch's

Cambria cagers climbed into fifth place by virtue of their triumph. Seven of Cambria's eight players broke into the scoring. The victors played stellar ball.

The game was hard-fought and close until the final whistle. It vas rough, 35 fouls being imposed. Randolph made only five out of 23 gift shots and Cambria count-Rowlands had six points for the box scores: victors. Landsverk Checked

Fall River's consistent attack downed Poynette. Coach Hunt's winners led all the way; Vernon Freck, forward, sets hot scoring pace with 15 tallies. The winners led at halftime, 12-9. Art Anderson accounted for nine of Poynette's points.

Rio stayed with Fox Lake during the first three periods, then suffered a decisive setback. With Landsverk held in check, Mal-comb McMillan took over the scoring role for Rio and poured in 12 points. Doug McCarthy paced Fox Lake with six baskets followed by Brossard.

Preliminary game scores: Rio 26, Fox Lake 14; Randolph 34, Cambria, 29; and Fall River 16, Poynette 8. The box scores: CAMBRIA | RANDOLPH

Rewey led at the quarter, 6-5, then faded as the winners stepped up their atputed third place in the third loop tack. Volnec had 10 points as the high scorer of the game; Clair Smyth was high for Rewey with three goals.

Linden gave Barneveld a bitter battle, but the defending champions had too many scoring guns. Jimmy McDonald and Phil Ivey marked up 10 points each as Bar-neveld led all the way after as-suming a narrow 6-5 lead in the initial stanza. Earl Crapp had 10 points, four on gift shots, and Bob Vial had six as Linden's standouts.
