"Count Of Monte Cristo" To Star Robert Montgomery

Al Pearce And His Gang Arranges An "Old Times Party;" Margaret Speaks, Soprano, To Be Heard

Robert Montgomery and Josephine Hutchinson star in the epic production "The Count of Monte Cristo" in the Radio Theatre Monday, As Edmond Dantes, Robert Montgomery has a swashbuckling adventurous role which gives him perhaps his greatest dramatic opportunity to date. Leading lady of the play is Josephine Hutchinson who has the part of Mercedes de Rosas.

Produced by Cecil B. DeMille, "The Count of Monte Cristo" will be broadcast over WABC at 9 p. m.

Adapted from the novel by Mexander Dumas, "The Count of Monte Cristo" is ideal radio dramatic material. Its action is fast moving with a strong plot and characterization. The drama takes place against a background of historica! events in the Napoleonic period with the adventures of the sailor prisoner, Edmond Dantes, carrying it to a smashing climax.

Al Pearce and his Gang will have an "Old Times Party" during their broadcast Monday at 8:00 p. m. over WEAF. While Eb and Zeb, those amusing storekeepers of Corn Center, will be completely at home, Elmer Blurt, Tizzie Lish, Arlene Harris and Carl Hoff will delve into the past for old time games, antiquated slang and music of a generation ago to keep up with the Coin Centerites.

Margaret Speaks, soprano, wiil sing selections by Ernest Charles, Stevens and Puccini as her solo offerings during the concert Mon-Heart' by Ernest Charles; Stevens' 'Dream Pedemi's "Tosca." Alfred Wallenstein program. will conduct the orchestra in the Prelude to Bizet's "Carmen;" "Chickens in Their Shells" from Moussorgsky's "Pictures at an Exhar's "Merry Widow Waltz."

George Raft replaces Victor Me-Laclen as guest star on the Eddie Cantor program Monday at 7:80 p. m. over WABC, "Mr. Guffy," the "Mad Russian" and the autograph-seeking Bert Parks will be on hand to see just how tough plete the program.
