Writes Melodrama To Be Presented Friday

Story Of Indian Here To Be Tribute To Boy Scout Week: Andy Devine To Join Pine Ridge College

Gracie Allen's upside down typewriter has turned out a thrilling melodrama titled 'Er t Lynn or They Went The; Way, Sherith," for armmatization on the weekly Burns and Allen show Francy at 8 20 p. m. over WABC. George Burn.; will play the crosel father, Ray Noble the sheriff, and Paul Douglas and Frink Parker, the hero. (One is a spare.) Gracie is slated for the heroin's role. Top tunes of the day to be played by Ray Noble are 'You Must Have Been a Beautiful Baby" and "Sweet Little Headache."

The seas of "Inc Bowers Indian Here," will be teld by the Old Rangers as a special tribute to Boy Serie werk, during the Teath Valley Days program, Unday, at 6:10 p. m. over WEAP. Joe Bowers was chief of the Paiute tribe which controlled Death Valley during the Cury 1860. A stanneh advocate of friendship between Indian and White Man, Joe was ousted as chief when other hraves rebelled against his policies. When the Indians were driven out of Death Valley after the Civil war the Paintes again made Joe their chief, and he dedicated the remaining years of his life to strengthening the bond of friendship between the two races. The cowboy song "loe Bowers." erroneously associated with the Indian chief, will be sung by Carson Robison during the broad-
