Thornhill Likely to Remain As

Stanford Coach

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Calif.—(U.P.)—The Stanford university board of athletic control

Sunday night recommended to President Ray Lyman Wilbur that the contract of Head Football Coach C. E. "Tiny" Thornhill be

Wilbur was in Chicago. He was expected to follow the board's recommendation.

The board also recommended that Thornhill's chief assistant, Rebert H. Grayson, be rehired. Grayson's contract would have expired Aug. 31.

Eleanor Phelps appears as a crusading doctor in the new dramatic series, "Life and Love of Dr. Susan" over WBBM at 1:15 p. m. Mondays through Fridays. In the role of Dr. Susan Chandler, Miss Phelps portrays the mother of two children who decides to carry on her medical work in a small community, after her husband disappears during a South American expedition. The actress was born in Baltimore and graduated from Vassar college before embarking on her theatrical career. She was seen on Broadway recently with Maurice Evans in "Richard II."

Decide City Skating Titles Despite Soft Ice

The municipal speed-skating championships were staged at Tenney park Sunday afternoon before 500 spectators, despite soft ice.

Donald Chase, Charles Willison, William Carow, Tommy Boyle, Donald Stevens, James Devine, and Johnny O'Meara were individual stars in the senior men and boys' classes.

Anita Burr, Betty Baer, Gladys Pfahler, and Lois Lundstrom captured divisional championships in the girls' classes.

Betty Baer was the outstanding performer of the afternoon, displaying a world of power and natural ability as she flashed to glory in the juvenile girls' events. In an exhibition, Fred Milverstedt, senior class A entry and once Madison's best adult speed skater, paced Betty Burr, promising girl star, in a fast quarter-mile.

Times were ordinary because of a slushy track. It was necessary for park commission employes to operate planers and scrapers between every three races. Spills were common, and judgment of pace was hampered by the slowness of the ice.

Arthur Lutz, Alfred Peterson, and Alfred Fuss acted as judges. Harry C. Thompson, city recreation director, was starter. Leo Peterson handled the announcer's duties, and Lowell LaMore was clerk of course. The results:
