Gods Of Mythology Will Attempt To Bring Love-Making Technique Up To Date In Tuesday Night Broadcast

"Love and Kisses," an amusing fantasy in which the gods of mythology seek to bring their technique of love making up to date, will be broadcast over WJZ at 10:30 p. m., on, St. Valentine's Day.

The play was written by Ranald MacDougall, young author who rose from operator of a mimeograph machine toa staff script writer at NBC. He has written several unusual fantasies that have all been hits when broadcast by the NBC.

In his Valentine comedy Jupiter imports a professor from earth to deliver lectures on modern ways, with emphasis on jitterbugs and necking. By mistake the professor brings

A touch of the dramatic is offered Sigma patrons in the picture, "Devil's Island." This is a story of an innocent man condemned to the French penal colony and it tells of his struggles against great odds to win vindication. That great character actor, Boris Karloff, is seen as the victim of the sinister plot.

A fine double bill is on tap at the State theatre. "Stablemates," a film packed with drama, pathos and humor, finds Mickey Rooney and Wallace Beery teamed.
