at Home This Year

NEW YORK -- (U.S) — Eddie Mend, paunchy pilot of Henry Armstrong, today mapped out a busy summer campaign in which the little Negro warrior from Los Angeles will risk his welter and lightweight championships several services during Derby week, May conference warfare this week. 22-27. Then Armstrong will come home and give Lou Ambers a shot at the 135-pound light weight tiara he took from Lou last year.

English promoters want Armstrong to fight the winner of the March 15 bout between Jake Kilrain, European welter champion, and Ernie Roderick of England.

Brig. Gen. A. C. Critchley, now in the United States, has offered Mead a guarantee of $45,000 or the privilege of a 40 per cent cut of the gate for Henry to risk his wel-terweight title at White City stadium, where 100,000 customers can be handled.

National Sporting club also is try-ing to land the Armstrong show in London.
