March, Miss Eldridge Will Do "The American Way" Bit

Program Chalked Up As Scoop For Kate Smith Hour; Gene Autry Scheduled For "Tune-Up-Time"

Kate Smith will present Frederic March and Florence Eldridge in scenes from their Broadway play, "The American Way," sensational patriotic success, on her full hour broadcast over WABC Thursday at 9 p. m.

Signing "The American Way" marks another scoop for Kate Smith and her Hour on CBS. With every variety and dramatic program bidding for the patriotic epic, the star's astute manager, Ted Cellins, succeeded where others had failed. This agreement is a tribute to Miss Smith from two of her strongest admirers. Mr. and Mrs. March (Flor ence Eldridge) who not only star in the diama but produced it themselves.

Miss Smith, long associated with Americanism and who made her public debut as a child singing for doughboys encouped in Washington during the war, will partielpate in the great drama by singing at its conclusion, "God Bless America," the patriotic anthem written for her recently by hying Berlin.

Gene Autry, Hollywood's No. 1 singing cowboy, will come out of the west, to fill the guest spot on the broadcast of "Tune-Up Time," the new variety series which features Walter O'Keete, Andre Kostelanetz with a 45-piece orchestra, and Kay Thompson and her Rhythm Singers, Thursday at 5,000 fan letters every week and NURSING BODY The horse opera idol, who gets
