THE WISCONSIN STATE JOURNAL Heil Urges Nation Buy Wisconsin Product

State Pushes Cherry Week

Gov. Heil today made his first official appeal in behalf of a particular Wisconsin product when he endorsed the national cherry campaign,

"I want to urge all our good Wisconsin folks to buy Wisconsin cherries during National Cherry week, Feb. 15 to 22.

"This is a fine opportunity to help an important Wisconsin industry. Our cherry growers up in Door county packed over sever million cans of cherries in 1937—over $1,000,000 worth.

"That's reason enough for all of us to buy this delicious product and to give the good organizations that are putting on this drive

Announcement of Wisconsin's participation in the sales cam-paign was made by the Wisconsin agricultural authority, which last week sent the field men to boost Wisconsin cherries among the dis-

Keith Points Sad Picture of Pensions

Old age pensioners are qualifying at the rate of 500 a month in Wisconsin, and only 20 per cent of the 240,000 population past 65 years of age is on the pension rolls now, George Keith, pension director, told the joint finance committee of the legislature Thursday, "Can't any of you fellows bring a little sunshine in here?" asked Assemblyman Frank Graass (R., Sturgeon Bay), after Keith and A. the Wisconsin County Boards assn., being sponsored by the Wisconsin had presented Wisconsin's pension State Dental society, it was an-
