Miss Gertrude Niessen To Be Presented On Good News Show

Singing Star To Make Number Of Appearances; Helen Haves To Be Heard With Kate Smith

Robert Young will present Gertrude Niessen in the first of a series of appearances on Good News of 1939 during the broadcast Thursday. Meliza Korjus, soprano star of MGM films, and Carey Wilson, writer of the Hardy Family series. also will be guest stars during the program over WEAF from າ 10 p. m.

dith Willson and his orchestra will introduce "Chestarce," the latest dance craze of England, as a feature of the broadcast.

Frank Morgan will be on hand to welcome the Good News, of 1939 guests, and Baby Snooks (Fanny Brice) will spend a quiet afternoon with Daddy (Hanley Stafford.) Meredith Willson will commemorate the first anniversary of the death of his old friend, O. O. McIntyre, by presenting "Thoughts While Strolling" from his composition, "O. O. McIntyre Suite." The orchestra also will play "It Seems To classical favorites. Helen Hayes, first lady of the American stage, will make one of radio's most unusual "request" guest appearances when she visits Kate Smith's Hour broadcast over WABC Thursday at S p. m.

It is all unusual because Miss Haves, not Miss Smith, made the request. She stated that she had always wanted to broadcast with Kate whom she admires and who is also a Washingtonian. The Songbird of the South, in turn, admires Miss Hayes personally and as the outstanding actress on the American stage. She has long hoped to play microphone host to her. So Kata received one of the greatest thrills of her life when Helen Hayes volunteered to make a guest appearance on the Kate Smith Hour show, particularly since every guest star show on the air has been trying to sign the actress, and many sponsors
