Noted Zanies To Become Stars Of "Model Minstrel" Program

Drama Of Airlines Will Be Featured On Radio Theatre: International Nights To Give Salute To France

Tom Howard and George Shelton, noted zanies, will be come the stars of the "Model Minstrel" program heard over WABC Mondays at 8:30 p. m. They guest-starred while Pick and Pat, who leave the program after being heard on it for five years were vacationing, Rumor has Howard and Shelton signing for this series one day before they were offered the closing comedy spot on the Sunday night Don Ameche-Charley McCarthy hour from Hollywood.

A drama of the airlines and the men and women who fly them with James Cagney, Stuart Erwin, Jeanne Cagney and Boots Mallory in leading roles will be the attraction in the Radio Theatre Monday. The play is "Ceiling Zero" and it will be broadcast over WARC at 9 p. m. with Cecil B. DeMille as producer.

Cagney and Erwin play the role of pilots on an airline and the play follows them thru the air and on the ground. Behind the drama of night flying fog and crackups is a story of clashing personahties. Unusual angle of the Radio Theatre production is that three members of the Cagney family are involved, Jimmy stars and in featured roles are his sister, Jeanne, and his sister-in-law, Boots

A musical salute to France will he presented by Opal Craven, the Lullaby Lady, the Continental Meuse," followed by Fragson's tenor. Other orchestral selections figure of international stature. will include Scotto's "Petite Tonl'inoise," "Sous les ponts de Paris," Moretti's "Mon petite Tom." and Columbia Broadcasting System. Opal Craven, by way of contrast. Beso de tu Boca."
