"Folly want a crack?" seems to be Ned Sparks' version of the time-honored saying, "Folly want a cracker?" as far as the feathered nemesis who appears on Star theater with him. The bird has a habit of talking back to Sparks who, before it showed up, had pretty much of a monopoly on back-talking. And the whole thing has made Sparks even sorer, if that's possible. The mar who's been giving Sparks the "bird" on the Star theater shows is Cliff Arquette, shown here protecting it. The parrot is really stuffed and it's Arquette who supplies its exceedingly parrot-like voice.

Winter Book Betting Lags on Rich Race

By THOMAS H. NOONE United Press Staff Correspondent NEW YORK (U.P.)—The late P. T. Barnum used to say there weren't many of that breed this year when it came to laying it on the line in the winter book betting on next week's $100,000 Santa Anita Handicap.

Seabiscuit, a prohibitive favorite for the event, was scratched the other day but, wonder of wonders, only $3,000 had been put on his nose in the future book of James J. Carroll, St. Louis betting commissioner.

Usually when a horse is as well-liked so far in advance of a race as was Seabiscuit the play on him is terrific. But this time it was different because Carroll revealed that he had pocketed only three grand when the "Biscuit went lame and had to be scratched. Seabiscuit had been the favorite in the list of 107 nominations.

Kayak II favored Carroll telephoned his closing line on the March 4 event Saturday he stated that the volume of betting was 25 per cent off that of last year and the lightest on the west coast stake since the event was inaugurated in 1935.

Charles S. Howard's Kayak II was 6-1 favorite in Carroll's final callover after having been hampered down from 60-1, the figure offered against the Argentine invader when the books opened Jan. 30.

Mrs. E. Friendly's Jacola, queen of the fillies in 1937, and A. A. Baroni's Speed Specify, closed equal second choices at 8-1. Townsend B. Martin's Cravat, Mrs. Parker Corning's Thanksgiving, and the A. G. Vanderbilt hopefuls of Heelly and Impound were next in line at 10-1 each.

Porter's Mite is 15-1 Bing Crosby's Ligaroff, considered by many experts the best of the South American importations; L. B. Mayer's Main Man, and Mrs. Emil Denmark's War
