Ethel Waters And Joe Cook Will Be Guests Of Vallee

Paloma, South American Singer. To Be Heard; Crosby Signs Joan Bennett And Joseph Calleia

Ethel Waters, now appearing on Droadway for the first time as a dramatic actress, will do a scene from her play, "Mamba's Daughters," on Hudy Vallee's Variety Hour Thursday. Joe Cook, comedian, and Paloma, an Argentinian singer, are other guest stars in the broadcust over WEAF at 8 p. m.

In musical revues Ethel Waters has been one of the most popular Negro singers for many years. "Mamba's Daughters" is her first venture as an actress.

Joe Cook is one of the Vallee "standbys" who makes several appearances annually on the hour. This week he does
