Reedsburg Will Share Title With

La Crosse Logan

La Crosse Logan high school's basketball team Friday night tied Reedsburg for the South Central conference championship by defeating Viroqua, 27-24, in the final round of games of the conference schedule. Sparta tied Viroqua for third place by defeating Tomah, 28-25, and Portage gained Richland Center and Tomah as co-partners in the cellar by defeating Richland Center, 24-22.

Portage's win over Richland Center also earned it the fourth berth in the Reedsburg class B district tournament next week. Lodi, Baraboo, and Reedsburg are other teams in the meet.

Viroqua put up a hard fight against Logan but was unable to hold a one-point halftime lead it gained with a 12-point barrage in the second quarter. Coach Carl Matthusen's co-champions trailed at the half, 15-14, but took the permanent lead in the third period. Seelbo and Gilmeister led Logan with eight and 10 points while DeVerne Vig paced Viroqua with

NEW YORK-(U.P.)-Jack Dempsey, who has been searching for a "white hope" ever since Joe Louis rose to power, blamed the pathetic showing of his latest find. Wild Bill Boyd, on poor physical condition and stage fright today.

Wild Bill dropped a 10-round decision to lanky Jim Robinson of Philadelphia in the all-heavyweight show at Madison Square Garden Friday night. Dempsey vowed he retained confidence in Boyd's ability. Although it was a split decision, Dempsey said he was satisfied Robinson had earned the decision. The other surprise on the program was Gene Bonin, rugged New Haven, Conn., veteran who carned a six-round draw with the hardhitting Pat Comiskey, 18-year-old sensation from Paterson, N. J. What was listed as the feature bout was a dull 10-round affair in which Nathan Mann of New Haven, scored his fifth straight victory over Buddy Knox of Dayton, O.

New Lisbon in Cage Finals

MAUSTON—Sparked by War-ren Sorenson, hard playing forward, Necedah high school's basketball team turned the tables on New Lisbon's powerful machine here Friday night, hanging up a well-earned 26-19 victory for the championships of the Mauston class C district tournament.

championships of the Mauston class C district tournament.

Several weeks ago, New Lisbon defeated Necedah, and the two teams finished in a tie for the Juneau County League championship. Friday night's tournament championship triumph gave Necedah a moral claim to the undisputed loop pennant; it was the second time this season it beat its rival, having achieved the feat previously in the opening league game of the season.

Camp Douglas bagged consolation honors with a 15-9 win over Woneyeas and Wiscoppin Delay.

Camp Douglas bagged conso-lation honors with a 15-9 win over Wonewoc, and Wisconsin Dells trimmed Elroy, 22-3, for third place. The Dells turned in the outstanding defensive feat of the meet as it held the influenzaweakened Elroy squad without a field goal.

The championship game was a typical title battle, played before a crowd of 750, but it was Sorenson, league scoring champion, who stole the show. He meshed six baskets and two free throws for Coach Johnny Jung's chamfrom competition the two previous weekly mat show. games because of influenza

Kenosha Is Victor Over Park, 22-9

KENOSHA - Shackling Racine Washington Park's conference leading cage contingent with two field goals and five free tosses the Red Devils of Kenosha created a new defensive record for the current campaign in the Big Eight Conference Friday night as they stacked up 22 points on their own in a 22-9 upset victory. The victors missen 11 free flips in the bargain.

Kenosha rated .500 before the tilt and Park boasted seven wins and two reversals, but the rangy Reds clamped on a tight defense, and passed brilliantly to control play all the way. Kray had eight points and Hansen and Pawl six each to power the Reds while Dykstra and Henkes made Racine's lone baskets Kenosha closes the season next Friday against the Blue Birds at
