

Joan Bennett Will Be Guest On Jack Haley Wonder Show

Barbara Luddy To Appear On First Nighter Schedule; March Of Time Enters Ninth Consecutive Year

Joan Bennett, lovely screen star, will drop in at the Wonder Show Friday evening to exchange a few quips with Jack Haley at 7:30 p. m.

All of Jack's pals will be on hand to join in the fun—Lucille Ball, another fair-haired beauty of the screen, Virginia Verrill, the blues singer, Ted Fio-Rito and Artie Auerbach.

Virginia will dedicate a musical number to Jack, "You're a Sweet Little Headache." Fio-Rito's orchestra will give forth "Fully Funny Of Hills" and other numbers.

The versatile Barbara Luddy plays at counter-spy in a San Francisco Fair setting on the "First Nighter" broadcast Friday, 8:00-8:30 p. m. over WABC. Miss Luddy takes the part of Kay Merritt, seeking lost military secrets. In a hotel lobby she meets Hank Walsh, played by Les Tremayne. A foreigner whose room she has searched, accuses her of burglary. She poses as a newspaperwoman, and Hank backs her up. Kay deceives Hank about her real work. She discovers the military plans and the working model of a coast defense gun hidden at the San Francisco Fair, then explains the real situation to Hank and they fall in love.

The March of Time, radio's oldest news dramatization program, will enter its ninth consecutive year on the air with WJZ Friday, at 9:30 p. m. More than 2,800 news dramatizations have been presented since the first broadcast on March 6, 1931.

The death of the old New York World and the birth of the World-Telegram, the renomination of "Big Bill" Thompson as Mayor of Chicago and several other outstanding news events of the week were dramatized on that first program.

The program was originated by Roy E. Larsen, vice president of Time, Inc. It is one of the most carefully researched and elaborately produced programs on the air. A full week of editorial research, writing, rewriting and editing, and nearly three full days of rehearsal are devoted to each half-hour March of Time broadcast.

The CBS Playhouse will present its first dramatized mystery story Friday, when Orson Welles and his cast present "The Glass Key," by Dashiell Hammett, author of "The Thin Man." This is the first detective story offered on the Playhouse playbill since the show's inception.

HEIR REQUESTS SEARCH FOR VANISHED VESSELS

MARYSVILLE, O., March 10.—The Brock Shipping Co. here is looking for a fleet of ships that plied Canadian waters 50 years ago. The company was asked to undertake the search by Paul Dubuc, who claimed to be the grandson of the man who owned the vessels. Dubuc said the ships, known as the "French White Fleet," were owned to him by his grandfather, Charles A. Dubuc, who died in 1897. He explained the will was "stolen from the dead" and was not found until recently.

WALKS 12,200 MILES TO ACQUIRE AN EDUCATION

Cal., March 10.—(UP)—If —(UP)—Harry E. Taylor, who has received a degree from Wittenberg college, estimates that he walked 12,200 miles getting an education. He claims he walked four miles a day for eight years to grade school; 10 miles a day to junior high; and two miles a day to senior high. Taylor says he drove 53,600 miles going to normal school and to college, most of that distance with a horse and buggy.

Young And Baxter Teamed In Latest Comedy Offering

"Made For Each Other" Scheduled For Screening At Ohio; Double Bills Featured At Three Theatres

That ideal romantic team, Loretta Young and Warner Baxter, are back together again in "Wife, Husband and Friend," the slambang comedy of a delirious romance which opens Friday night at the Quilna preview. This promises to be one of the season's most sparkling hits. In the supporting cast are such favorites as Binnie Barnes, Cesar Romero, George Barbier, and Helen Westley.

A modern story of two young lovers who are convinced that nothing must keep them apart and who surmount all obstacles to win happiness together, is told in the picture.

"Made for Each Other," which opens Saturday on the Ohio screen. In the principal roles are Carole Lombard, James Stewart, Charles Coburn and Lucille Watson.

Friday is the closing day for "Topper Takes a Trip," current Ohio comedy. At last the two hecklers of the picture which promises to have all the humor and wit that their radio jokes have had. The title of this riotous comedy is "You Can't Cheat an Honest Man," and the two hecklers mentioned are W. C. Fields and Charlie McCarthy. Of course, Edgar Bergen is in the picture too, starting at the Sigma Saturday.

Opening Friday at the State will be "The Road to Reno," starring Joel McCrea, and "Nancy Drew Detective," featuring Bonita Granville and Frankie Thomas Jr. "Sons of the Legion," starring Donald O'Connor, Lynne Overman and Billy Lee, and "Overland Stage Raiders," starring John Wayne, Ray Corrigan, Max Terhune and the Three Mesquiteres, are the two features now showing at the Lyric.

The Majestic opens for the week-end with "Spawn of the North," starring Dorothy Lamour, George Raft and Henry Fonda, and "Cattle Raiders." The former picture is a dramatic tale of life among the salmon trappers in Alaska.

ter for the second time by Darryl F. Zanuck, production chief. They last appeared together in "Wife, Doctor and Nurse," one of last season's outstanding comedy hits. It was in response to thousands of letters received by the studio that Mr. Zanuck decided that only an encore would satisfy the fans.

The story of "Wife, Husband and Friend" concerns itself with the hilarious misunderstandings which result when a lovely wife, who has loads of money, a beautiful home and a grand husband, decides that she wants one thing more. A career as a singer.

The film is based on a novel by James M. Cain, famous novelist who wrote such best-sellers as "The Postman Always Rings Twice" and "Serenade." Since "Wife, Husband and Friend" is gay comedy set against a modern background of alluring music, Darryl Zanuck looked about for the director who, by his own experience and proven talent, would be best suited to handle the microphone. He found him in Gregory Ratoff, famous Russian character actor and comedian, turned director.

Immediately Ratoff received his assignment he set about seeing that the stars got the right atmosphere for the picture by escorting them both to a number of concerts in Los Angeles.

and has to do one of his acts in blackface so the discolored orb won't be noticed. The attractive Constance Moore, playing her first major role, gives a brilliant performance. Mortimer Snerd is back again too. A brand new face seen on the screen for the first time is that of Princess Baba. Another newcomer is Baccana, Hindu animal hypnotist, who performs some amazing feats with lions and crocodiles.

Lovely Carole Lombard and popular James Stewart make their debuts as a new romantic team in "Made For Each Other," a modern-day drama of young married love which begins an engagement at the Ohio theatre Saturday. Supporting this new starring duo is a large and imposing cast of notable players headed by Lucille Watson, Charles Coburn, Ruth Weston, Donald Briggs and Eddie Quillan. The cast in its speaking parts alone numbers 86, at least 40 to 50 higher than the ordinary feature.

"Made For Each Other," filmed from the screenplay written by Jo Swerling, is the poignant story of John and Jane Mason, a young married couple, whose counterparts may be found almost anywhere in the world, a couple struggling to overcome opposing economic forces, their lives complicated by the presence of a good-intentioned but misguided mother-in-law. All the joys, the tragedies, the problems, comedy and romance of young married love are woven into the story.

Miss Lombard, star of the screen's most successful comedies, plays the role of Jane Mason, providing fans with big news. For this role is Miss Lombard's first serious and dramatic one in years, and she portrays a girl into whose life comes a balance of happiness and tragedy. With James Stewart, one of the screen's most popular heroes, playing Miss Lombard's lawyer-husband, Hollywood introduces a new film starring team.

BUCK SCORNS WILD LIFE AFTER TASTING COMFORTS
SEQUIA NATIONAL PARK, MARYSVILLE, O., March 10.—The public doesn't quit feeding wild animals, there soon won't be any more wild animals—they'll be tame — park officials here think. A fine three-point buck which used to come to Lon Oldham's blacksmith shop for a daily hand-out was removed from the park last spring.

The buck, however, apparently had lost its hankering for the wild life and six months later showed up again at the blacksmith shop for its daily manna.
