Pat O'Brien Is Scheduled On Music Hall Hour Thursday

Irish Actor Will Attempt To Match Tales Of County Cork With Burns' Van Buren Anecdotes

Pat O'Brien, one of Hollywood's best known actors, will lend an authentic touch to the St. Patrick's Day program of the Music Hall Thursday at 10 p. m., over WEAF. Pat will face the verbal onslaughts of Bing Croshy and Bob Burns. and attempt to match tales of County Cork with those of Van Buren, as told by Burns. Crosby, with the aid of the Music Maids and John Scott Trotter's orchestra will hail the day with several songs of the Emerald isle.

Preview scenes from a forthcoming picture, with stars of the production as guest performers, will highlight the dramatic portions of the Good News of 1939 program Thursday from 9 to 10 p. m. over WEAF. Comedy antics by Fannie
