NOTICE OF APPOINTMENT

Pullman Porter Scheduled For Interview With Allen

Fred To Ascertain Tipping Propensities Of Arch Foe Benny; Gang Busters To Dramatize Case Of Raffles

An idea of the way celebrities of radio, screen and stage deport themselves on transcortinental railroad jaunts will be disclosed when Fred Allen interviews Joe Cooper, a Pullman porter of the Twenticth Century Limited, as his "Person You Didn't Expect to Meet" on "Town Hall Tonight" Wednesday at 9 p. m. over WEAF.

Making the New York-Chicago run for 22 years, Cooper has made up berths for such stars as Joan Crawford, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Phil Baker, Rosalind Russell, George Arliss, Conrad Nagel, Mary Pickford and Jack Benny as well as for Fred himself. Not the least interesting of the items which Mr. Cooper will reveal will be in the realm of gratuities.

Fred Allen is particularly interested in the tipping propensities of his friend Jack Benny, and if he finds out that Jack's free willofferings at the end of the line are greater than his own he is going to take up a collection for Mr. Cooper on the spot. Fred also expects to ask the porter if it is true that Benny sleeps with his socks on to avoid the wear and tear of taking them off.

The case of Arthur Barry, selfstyled Raffles who used his college education and cultural background to further a life of crime, will be dramatized on Gang Busters Wednesday at 8 p. m. over WABC. A law enforcement officer connected with the Barry case will relate the details to Colonel H. Norman Schwarzkopf.
