Bellamy, Florence George To Be Guests Of Bing Crosby

Film Star And Soprano To Swap Quips With Crooner And Sage Of Van Buren Thursday Night

A more than cusual chat with Bing Crosby and Bob Burns is in store for Relph Bellamy, of the movies, and Florence George, soprano, when they appear on the Music Hall Thursday. In addition to Bing and Bob, the regular company includes the Music Maids and John Scott Trotter's orchestra.

Having shown up several times on the hour that's heard over WEAF at 10 p. m. Ralph Bellamy now may be called an alumnus of the Hall. Bellamy's latest motion picture is "Trade Winds" in which he plays a conscientious but none-too-bright detective. He first discovered his flair for comedy roles in a visit with Ding some time back.

Florence George is not only good-looking but also possesses a gopranj v k. of presnik guality. In addition to her singing she wall submit to what Ring likes to call a "pear-shaped" in a streamlined) interview with Bob Bains stepping "mikeward" from time to time to add a little heckling.

Wallace Beery will appear with Laraine Day and Alan Curtis in preview scenes from the forthcoming motion picture, "Sergeant Madden," as a special feature of Good News of 1939 Thursday at 9 p. m. over WEAF. Emcee Robert Young will also present Meliza Korjus and Gilbert Russell, singing stars-and regulars Fanny Brice, Frank Morgan, Hanley Stafford, Warren Hull, and Meredith Willson with his orchestra.

Lovely Meliza Korjus, of "Great Waltz" fame, will sing Mozart's rising young tenor, will offer "Don't Ask Me Why" in true Continental fashion. As a special musical highlight, maestro Meredith Willson will lead the Good News orchestra in the original, version of "Deep Purple" as it i was written by Peter DeRose six'

Miss Grace Moore, Metropolitan Opera soprano, and star of many a hit film-musical, will be heard as guest artist with regular Waland Kay Thompson on the Thurs-Time," over WABC at 10 p. m.

For her sole radio appearance this spring, Miss Moore will sing the opera in which she delighted 'Depuis le Jour," from "Louise," Metropolitan audiences of the 1938-39 season. Her other numbers will include two Noel Coward waltzes-"I'll See You Again," and "Zigeuner," also the current Cole Porter song hit, "Begin The Beguine."

Weary of his Manhattan haunts, Comedian Walter O'Keefe Childs restaurants. will set his humorous skits against a wide-open western background where the erstwhile race-track and cafe characters of his comic company will be obliged to prove that they can survive the ratified atmosphere of the virile cowcountry.

A member of radio's first stock company, now a first lady of Broadway, returns to the scene of her initial dramatic achievements when Betty Garde goes to the CBS Playhouse on Thursday, to star in an original playlet on the "Kate Smith Hour" over WABC at 8 p. m.

Now playing "Emma Wallace" "The Primrose Path," her first leading role in a New York legitimate stage success, Miss Garde will appear as the highlight of the program starring Miss Smith and presenting the Jack Miller orchestra, Ted Stracter's choir, the "Aldrich Family" and Abbott
