Parks Johnson and Wally Butterworth will attempt to disprove the old adage, "There's no fool like an old fool," by interviewing a representative group of the younger generation during their All Fool's Day broadcast of the Vox Pop program, Saturday, at 9 p. m., over WEAF. In addition to their informal interviews with persons in the lobby of the Hotel McAlpin, New York, Parks and Wally will record the views of several members of the audience to their "question of the week."

Andy Devine, gravel-voiced radio and film comedian, will join the program as guest of Tommy Riggs and Betty Lou during the broadcast, Saturday at 8 p. m., over WEAF. Andy will fall prey to the April Fool's Day pranks of Betty Lou, while Riggs attempts to pacify the mayor of Van Nuys. The musical program will be by Freddie Rich and his orchestra.
