Fibber M'Gee And Company Start Fifth Year On Radio

27 Canadian Stations Added To Chain; Molly Expected To Return To Show In About A Year

Fibber McGee and company will observe their 200th appearance on the air and the beginning of their fifth year on NBC in a broadcast over WEAF Tuesday at 9:30 p. m. with three special events to be celebrated:

- 1. The sponsor's birthday gift of the entire Canadian network, (27 new stations,) added to the McGee hook-up.
- 2. Molly's probable return to the show next fall.
- 3. A brand new 52 week contract for Fibber.

With this new audience of untapped millions to coax into a listening radius, possibilities of Molly's return to the program, and a new contract in his pocket, Fibber starts his fifth year with the odds all on his side.

Molly has recovered from the illness which has kept her off the show for more than a year, and doctors say she will, band; Ike Smalls, a grocer whose be back with Fibber on the program as soon as she is sufficiently recuperated. The McGee show goes into its fifth cycle as one of the ten most popular programs on the air, altho when it was launched, April 16, 1935, its principals, its format, and even the names of Fibber GcGee and Molly were completely unknown to the radio audience.
