Kin Believed Located Here

THE WISCONSIN STATE JOURNAL

Police Tuesday unearthed a possible clue that the body of a man recently taken from the Chicago river may be the missing brother of a maid working in a Madison

A further check was planned after Dect. Capt. John R. Arnold received a circular from Dect. Capt. John L. Sullivan of Chicago police, in which the recovery of the body was reported. The circular reported the man might have relatives at an address given as 414 Virginia terrace. Arnold checked the address here and found the maid working there, Agnes Schatz, had a brother, Anthony, who has been missing since the first of the year.

The body of the man found had been in the river for some time, Arnold said. He said he is checking with another brother, Joseph, now living in Chicago, to obtain further information.

Order Forbids Fire Insurance in Marine Policies

Insurance Commissioner Harry J. Mortensen issued Tuesday a for-mal order forbidding issuance of insurance covering fire hazards under marine policies in accord-ance with the supreme court decision handed down recently hold-Wisconsin statutes.

The order first states definitely federation, said today. that the standard fire insurance policy of the state of Wisconsin must be used where the hazard of fire insurance is written. It also is written in the order that marine policies can only cover marine hazards as defined in the order.

The order also rules that inclusion of the marine risk in any policy in which the fire hazard is also covered brings the policy within the fire insurance schedules. It is ordered that such policies must be submitted to the actuarial bureaus of the insurance company for filing with the insurance commission.

Another clause in the ruling olds that where automobile hazyear and a half ago. holds that where automobile hazard insurance is written with a part of the loss to be borne by the owner, announcement of such deviation must be filed with the insurance commission.

Georgie Porgie, 🐇 Puddin 'n Pie, Kiss---Oh, Boy

SAN JOSE, Calif. — (U.P.) — Jack Baldwin, San Jose state college sophomore, paid off a $5 bet today after he failed to kiss 20 different girls in 30 minutes, but he said it was Baldwin got only 14 victims within the time limit under the terms of his bet with Carl-ton Peregoy, football player. Starting from scratch, Baldwin swept through the campus, with Peregoy as score-keeper. He had 22 fielding chances and only eight resist-ed or ran away.

Baldwin praised his sport, compared to other collegiate pastimes of goldfish eating, worm swallowing, and magazine chewing.
"That's sissy stuff," he scoffed.

Mrs. Helen Dennick, dean of women, frowned, and said:
"It is out of my hands; it is too insane. This is more of a matter for the campus police."

Women Plan Central Group to Aid Labor

MILWAUKEE - (U.P.) - Better promotion for the purchase of union made products is expected to result from formation of a Wisconsin state federation of women' ing such policies contrary to the auxiliaries of labor, John J. Hand ley, secretary of the state labor

Women's auxiliaries of the state will meet here May 1 and 2 to to be incorporated into a national federation. At present, Handley said, most of the AFL locals in the state have women's auxiliaries made up of wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of union men.

and for the social functions that go with it," Handley explained. I. M. Ormburn, head of the un-ion trade department of the AFL, instigated the formation of a na-

Preliminary steps in Wisconsin toward this end were taken at the state labor federation convention n september at Shebovgan, Mrs. Elizabeth Bunce, Janesville, was appointed head of a committee to olan for the women's convention

Handley estimated that about 75 locals in the state will send two delegates each. With this central organization, he said, the women will be in a better position to promote the purchase of union made products. He also believed it will give the unions better support.

South Wind Aids Fire Fighters Save Community

BUTLER, Wis - (U.P.) - Fire threatened to destroy Butler to-day, but a providential south wind and the assistance of fire department units from Waukesha and Menomonee falls saved all, but two buildings.

Lack of adequate facilities prevented fire fighters and several ers apparently backed into Gren hundred volunteers from saving the Suburban hotel and the adjoining residence of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Schobat. Proprietor Herma Zache said his hotel housed FDR to Attend household goods of the two places White House announced today

Parkway Today CHICAGO ... (U.P.) -Five midwestern states made the opening move Monday in the fight to block HOLMES a 20 per cent freight reduction for southern states. Representatives Wisconsin, Illinois, Michigan and Ohio, members of the Central States Governors council, decided to file a brief and exceptions with the Interstate Commerce Commission asking reversal of the examiner's report in the southern governor's railroad rate case.

The representatives were Forest B. McElroy, rate expert for the Illinois commerce commis-sion; Harry R. Boeth, assistant McConnaughey, chairman of the Ohio public utility commission; Philip H. Porter and William F. Ehman of the Wisconsin Public Service Commission, and John J O'Harra, representing the governor of Michigan.

A commission was appointed to study all bills introduced in congress effecting rate-making pow-ers of the ICC. The conference was the second by the group which will reconvene at Detroit April 24. Southern governors have asked a 20 per cent freight reduction to give the south "parity" with the north. Manufacturers in the north claim the south already has advantages in lower costs for labor and raw materials shipments
