Bing, Joan And Mischa Hit New Heights In Sigma Film 'East Side Of Heaven' Is Crack Musical Comedy;

Boyer And Irene Dunne Co-Starred At Ohio

Bing Crosby, Joan Blondell and Mischa Auer reach new heights in their movie carcers in their latest musical comedy hit, "East Side of Heaven," which is current at the Sigma. Sandy, a new find only a few months old, steals the picture. In addition to all these stars four new hits are sun by Bing. Co-starred in the Ohio's exciting romantic drama are Irene Dunne and Charles Boyer who have made stellar marks individually and now are seen together for the first time. A tender romance based on the love at first sight theme is unfolded in "Love Affeir.'

One of the most widely discussed films ever produced "Let Us Live" is showing at the Quilna. Maureen O'Sullivan, Henry Fouda and Ralph Bellamy are featured in this story of plain average people who suddenly find the eyes of the world upon them. Innocent persons, yet cast as murderers.

"Lone Worlf Spy Hunt," featurng Warren William and Ida Lupino is the second Quilna picture. The film is the sparkling mystery drama in which the master criminal matches wits against a hand of master-spies.

Mickey Rooney swings out in his picture now showing at the State entitled "Hold That Kiss." He leads his own swing band and tries to aid cupid on the side as he mixes in the romance between Dennis O'Keefe and Maureen 0'Sullivan.

"Young Dr. Kildare" starring Lew Ayres and Lionel Barrymore is the other State feature. The first chapter in the new

'Lone Ranger" serial is now showing at the Lyric again featuring Bob Livingston in the leading role. George O'Brien in "Lawless Valley" and Paul Kelly, June Lang and Lyle Talbot in "Forged Passport" are the twin features now at the Lyric.

"Sandy" happened to become a film celebrity because the studio needed a baby to play in the new Bing Crosby-Joan Blondell picture, 'East Side of Heaven," at the Sigma theatre.

When this news leaked out hundreds of mothers stormed the studio portals. All carried babies. All but about 50 of the children were quickly eliminated. The others were given exhaustive screen tests.

Then Roy Henville, a Los Angeles milkman, entered the picture. It happened that one of Henville's customers was Charles Previn, musical director. Henville left some pictures of his baby, along with two quarts of milk, on Previn's doorstep one morning. Previn in turn showed the pictures to Director David Butler. An immediate test was arranged, with a contract quickly following.

That is how "Sandy" Henville became a film star, without knowing or caring what was happening. What really counted was the group of great big men who went thru the funniest motions for "Sandy's' own particular amusement, whenever the camera was grinding. That is one way baby smiles are obtained on the screen. responsible for his friend's death.
