Famed Half Of Team Returns After Illness Of Year: Radio Actresses And Announcers In Battle

Fibber McGee will welcome Molly back to the Fibber McGee and Company program Tuesday, from 9:30 to 10.00 p. m., over WEAF.

Molly (Mrs. Jim Jordan), rejoins her comedian husband on the air after an absence of more than a year. She has been heard only once since her last regular appearance, in October, 1937.

Since Fibber (Jim Jordan) brought his program to Hollywood early this year, Molly has been a constant spectator at rehearsals, Bill Thompson, Isabel Randolph, Harold Peary, Donald Novis, Billy Mills and his orchestra, and the Four Notes will join in a welcome

Outstanding Picture Opens Wednesday On Ohio Screen

"Pygmalion" Is Story Of A Man Who Took A Girl From The Gutters And Made Her Into A Duchess

One of the season's outstanding motion picture productions, "Pygmalion," the story of a man who took a girl from the gutters and made her a duchess, is scheduled to open Wednesday at the Ohio. The film is taken from the novel by George Bernard Shaw and stars Leslie Howard and a new discovery, Wendy Hiller.

Tuesday is the closing day for "Love Affair" starring Irene Dunne and Charles

Tuesday is also the last day for "East Side of Heaven" the gay musical comedy featuring Bing Croshy, Joan Blondell, Mischa Auer and "Sandy" at the Sigma. There is plenty of comedy, music and romance in this delightful picture.

Boyer at the Ohio.

Opening Wednesday at the Sigma will be "Four Girls in starring Ann Rutherford, Florence Rice, Mary Howard, Una Merkel and "Persons in Hiding" starring J. Carrol Naish.

The two pictures at the Quilna are of entirely different nature in that one, "Let Us Live," is a human dramatic story of two persons falsely accused of murder, and the other "Lone Wolf Spy is a mystery comedy Henry Fonda and Maureen O'Sulivan co-star in the first film and Warren William and Ida Lupino n the latter.

Opening Tuesday at the Lyric are these two hits, "Exposed" and 'Mr. Wong, Detective." As the titles suggest there are plenty of action thrills in both features.
