ROBERT "BELIEVE IT OR NOT" RIPLEY
Robert L. Ripley of "Believe It or Not" fame is shown above with one of his trophies, a bearded, mummified head of an ancient Indian, which he recently brought back from South America. Ripley's new program is aired each Friday at 9:30 p. m. through station WBBM.

Legless, Paralyzed Boys, Ball Players, With Ripley Tonight

Two boys, one with infantile paralysis and the other legless, play baseball and are good. "Believe It or Not," Robert Ripley brings Jimmy Hill, legless semi-professional hardball shortstop, and Emery Moyer, handicapped pitcher, to his broadcast tonight at 9:30 over station WBBM. Ripley pays tribute to baseball centennial year on the program.

world famed naturalist and illustrious University of Wisconsin graduate, goes almost unnoticed.

Born in Scotland in 1838, this lover of wild creatures, wild places, and the simple life achieved recognition for his outdoor work and as a pioneer of our system of national parks. He died in 1914.

A thumbnail sketch of Muir's life and achievements included in the "Today's Almanac" feature broadcast over WIBA at 8:45 a. m. today, was the only Madison observance of the anniversary.

Despite protests, Cornwall, England, will continue its war on ruff seals.
