Midget Band Will Feature "We, The People" Broadcast

Ex-Alcoholic Will Tell Of Regeneration; Hedda Hopper Set For Spot On Bob Hope's Hour Tuesday

The midget band of the "Parisian Midget Follies," composed of six little people, none of whom is over three feet nine inches tall, will be heard on Gabriel Heatter's "We, The People" Tuesday, at 9:00 p. m. over WABC.

Leader of the group is Jean Palfi, 43-year-old Liliputian, who will reveal the day-by-day doings of midget people, their problems, and their ambitions. Pint-sized Mr. Palfi is a personal friend of King Gustave, of Sweden, who used to come and watch rehearsals daily when the tiny maestro was with a troupe in Europe.

Also on the program will be an ex-alcoholic, judged incurable but recently regenerated thru Alcoholics Anonymous. a mutual benefit organization for chronic drinkers, who will appear anonymously to tell of the work of the group. Two youngsters, of East Orange, N. J., Richard Rinck and Jim-
