"Never Say Die," Presents Martha Raye, Bob Hope And Andy Devine; Double Bill Offered Sigma Fans

A change in bookings at the Ohio brings "Never Say Die," a hilarious comedy starring Martha Raye, Bob Hope and Andy Devine to the screen Wednesday. Complications to no end ensue when Hope marries Martha Raye to save her from a nobleman picked by her father,

"The Kid From Texas" starring Dennis O'Keefe and Florence Rice and "Women in the Wind" featuring Kay Francis and William Gargen, are the two pictures now at the Sigma. The first is the story of a rodeo star who meets a society girl and falls in love: with her. The latter is the tale of women who brave the dangers of aviation to fame and fortune.

A fighting cowboy and his lovely manager are the main characters in the one picture, "Winner Take All" which is current at the Quidna. Tony Martin and Gloria Stuart head the cast with the humorous Gambini family in supporting roles.
