back over the border in his most exciting and most romantic film. But while a hundred passes hunt the bullet proof bandit whom no jail can hold, and a thousand senators sigh for him, Cisco vows for the one girl he can't have.

Production Chief Doris F. Zanuck gave lovely Lynn Bari her most important role to date as the beauty for whose love the romantic bandit robbed banks, burned down jails — and generally asked his neck.

Dashing Cesar Romero presents a picture that is a far cry from his usual suave characterization as Lopez, the Cisco Kid's faithful but bloodthirsty henchman, while Henry Hull, who lately scored as the masculine newspaper editor in "Jesse James," is seen as Miss Bari's shy but lovable old grandfather.
