

Master Of Unique Musical Instrument Set With Allen

Theremin Virtuoso To Be Interviewed Wednesday Night; "Ask It Basket" Plans Unusual Program

Miss Clara Rockmore, theremin virtuoso, will be interviewed as Fred Allen's "Person You Didn't Expect To Meet" and will play that novel electrical instrument on "Town Hall Tonight" Wednesday at 8 p. m. over WEAF.

Invented a decade ago by Leon Theremin, a Russian, the theremin makes melodic sound with the assistance of the surrounding atmosphere. Different tones are produced by the operator standing in front of the instrument, which resembles a refrigerator, and moving his hands thru the air.

As a second feature of the program, Allen will lead the Mighty Allen Art Players thru a mystery titled "Murder in Cafe Society," while also on hand will be Portland Hoffa, the Merry Macs, the Town Hall Quartet directed by Lyn Murray and Peter Van Steeden, and his Troubadours.

Contestants will be asked to make animal-imitations, recite poetry backwards and do other "incredible feats" during a round of ruzzlers entitled, "Anything Can Happen," on Jim McWilliams' Ask-It Basket program over WABC Wednesday, 6:30 p. m.

McWilliams is inaugurating this round as a regular feature to provide an informal "let-your-hair-down" atmosphere, in which listeners may participate as if they were at a party. Tried out on the studio audience last week, the feature was so successful that McWilliams decided to include it in the program as a regular weekly feature.

Other features will include another special basket of questions on famous Americans and a round on current events.

Elsa Maxwell, America's most renowned hostess, will teach Neil Sparks, Ken Murray and Jimmy Wallington how to throw a real bang up party on the WABC Star Theatre, Wednesday. Priscilla Lane, guest star for the dramatic portion of the program, will appear in "Avenue A," an original playlet written especially for her by Arch Oboler.

The musical portion of the program will feature the radio premiere of "Melancholy Mood," by Kalmar and Ruby, sung by Frances Langford. She will also sing "I Cried For You" and Gene Autry's newest song "Paradise in Moonlight," Kenny Baker will sing "Ain't Cha Comin' Out Tonight" and "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes."

The musical background will be supplied by Dave Brockman and his orchestra who will also play an arrangement entitled "Espionage Cam."

America's largest prison break—the escape of Malloy Kuykendall and thirty other desperados from the Oklahoma Granite Prison on February 17, 1935—will be dramatized on Gang Busters, Wednesday at 7:00 p. m. over WABC. Details of the break will be related by a law enforcement officer in an interview with Col. H. Norman Schwarzkopf.

Kuykendall, in a conspiracy with Edward Stumphill and D. L. Baker, Jr., fomented a riot at the prison, seized the Sunday prison visitors and used them as hostages in escaping. Twenty-eight other prisoners joined them.

William Seabrook, author of "Asylum" and other best sellers, will discuss his spare time pursuit of voodoo and black magic on Dave Elman's Hobby Lobby Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. over WJZ.

Also on the program will be Jean Bates, of Grinnell, Ia., who was recently crowned Iowa hobby queen by Gov. George A. Wilson; Mrs. Harry M. Gordon, of Venice, Calif., who runs an animal refuge; Robert Pike, of Great Bend, Pa., whose hobby is collecting epitaphs, and a group of children from New York City who are learning to sing grand opera.

COLE CIRCUS HERE FOR MATINEE, EVENING SHOWS

MISS REPENSKY, TRICK RIDER

The circus is here! No city is complete without the annual miracle of the coming of the circus and sawdust tracks with its wilderness of aerial rigging and contraptions, its elephants, clowns, wire walkers, acrobats, dashing girl riders in fluff skirts, horses and horses and more of everything than was ever put together before and labeled a circus.

Alarm clocks, set to interrupt dreams of the wildest of wild animals and dizziest of gymnastic performers, sent many a youngster tumbling from bed and off to the railroad yards before sun-up this morning. For the Great Cole Bros. circus with Art Mix, famous movie western star and champion cowboy, is in Lima and encamped at Bellefontaine-av.

In addition to the performance Wednesday afternoon, another exhibition will be given Wednesday night, the doors opening promptly at 7 o'clock to permit an inspection of the menagerie. On account of the length of the big show, it will start promptly at 8 o'clock.

Trumpeting bands, tooting calliopes, rumbling wagons of red and gold took possession of the downtown streets shortly before noon when the street parade passed in review. From a point of magnitude, novelty and richness, it was by far the most pleasing circus street parade seen here in many years. It was viewed literally by thousands. Some of the spectators came a distance of 50 miles, and they were not disappointed.

Enlarged two-fold since its last appearance here the Great Cole Bros. shows has acquired the Robbins Bros. circus. The absorption has given the circus one of the world's largest traveling zoos. The menagerie tent is one of the largest ever constructed, and houses nearly a half a hundred dens and cages containing practically every specie of wild animal. Two caravans of camels from Siberia and the Great Desert, along with 20 elephants are a part of the consolidated menagerie.

Among the arenic stars in the augmented circus of 1939 are members of the Loyal-Repensky Family, 10 European riders, champions of their profession. Art Mix, the screen's greatest western star will appear with his great congress of cowboys, cowgirls and

"Rose Of Washington Square" Opens Wednesday At Quilna

Tyrone Power, Alice Faye And Al Jolson Starred; Fine Double Bill Flashing On Sigma Screen

Told in the heart songs and hit songs of today and yesterday is the story of "Rose of Washington Square" which opens Wednesday night at the Quilna preview. Tyrone Power and Alice Faye who have been co-starred in such hits as "In Old Chicago" and "Alexander's Ragtime Band" are once again seen in the stellar roles of this musical extravaganza. Al Jolson, William Frawley, Joyce Compton and Hobart Cavanaugh are in the supporting roles. "The Return of the Cisco Kid" will end Wednesday night at the Quilna preview.

Comedy, mystery and romance are the three ingredients in the two pictures now showing at the Sigma. "Society Lawyer" starring Walter Pidgeon and Virginia Bruce is filled with mystery and comedy while "Sudden Money" starring Charlie Ruggles, Broderick Crawford and Charlie Grapewin, is an hilarious comedy about a family that wins first prize in the sweepstake drawing.

Continuing at the Ohio is the sixth of the Hardy family series, "The Hardys Ride High" with Mickey Rooney again playing the role of Andy. At this time Judge Hardy inherits two million dollars and the family at once begins to spend it for him.

Wednesday is the final day for the showing of "Gunza Din" the mighty adventure story based on the poem by Rudyard Kipling and starring Cary Grant, Victor McLaglan and Douglas Fairbanks Jr., at the State. "The Family Next Door" starring Hugh Herbert and Ruth Donnelly is the other State feature.

Jane Withers in "Always in Trouble" and "Woman Doctor" starring Frida Inescort and Henry Wilcoxon are the two pictures now at the Lyric. Open Thursday will be Gene Autry in "Blue Montana Skies" and "Tough Kid."

Jane Withers thinks there isn't a jam she can't get out of, says Film Director Joseph Santley, "and, darn it, there isn't!"

Jane's latest escapade, appropriately titled "Always in Trouble," is at the Lyric theatre. The mischievous miss is shipwrecked, marooned on a desert island, and threatened by a gang of smugglers in the new comedy—and she loves it!

She's a poor little rich girl who decides it's about time her family came down from their high horse, since it wasn't so long ago that their income was of churchmouse size.

But when she sets about humanizing her folks, the trouble begins. The screen play was written by Karen De Wolf and Robert Chapin, based on the original story by Albert Treynor and Jeff Moffitt.

A whiff of lavender, the sight of a one-eyed book, the taste of "penny candy"—such are the little inconsequential things that can bring back the past to many of us in a rush of memory. But there is one thing dependable above everything else to work this result, and that's the popular song.

So bound up in the individual romances of our daily lives are the heart songs and hit songs of yesterday and today that just overhearing a familiar refrain opens the gates of memory. This was one of the reasons for the popularity of the recent film, "Alexander's Ragtime Band." To this nostalgia, also, is largely due the acclaim which has greeted the newest entertainment highlight from Darryl F. Zanuck, "Rose of Washington Square." The romantic stars of "Alexander's Ragtime Band"—Tyrone Power and Alice Faye—are joined by Al Jolson in "Rose of Washington Square" which opens Wednesday at the Quilna theatre.

Among the many familiar milestones of melody heard in the production are "My Man," "Trot Toot Tootsie, Goodbye," "April Showers," "Mammy," "I'm Always Chasing Rainbows," "Ja-Ida," "I'm Just Wild About Harry," "California, Here I Come" and "Avalon." In addition is the newest hit from Gordon and Revel, "I Never Knew Heaven Could Speak."

This laugh-provoking and thrilling murder mystery is superbly cast both in its major featured players as well as in its supporting cast. Walter Pidgeon was never seen to better advantage than in his role of lawyer-detective in this film. Virginia Bruce sparkles with engaging vivacity and even discloses one of her hidden talents when she sings as a night-club entertainer. And Leo Carrillo is at his topmost form in a warmly human characterization as a reformed gangster.

Evelyn Keyes, the Atlanta beauty whom Cecil B. DeMille signed on his first personal contract in over ten years, plays the romantic lead in "Sudden Money." Paramount's gay Charlie Ruggles-Marjorie Rameau comedy about sweepstakes winners, at the Sigma theatre. Miss Keyes, who made her screen debut in DeMille's "The Buccaneer" as a Louisiana belle, cashed in on her Southern background again when Selznick recently cast her in his forthcoming Dixie drama, "Gone With the Wind."

Miss Keyes' role in "Sudden Money" is that of a socially-ambitious daughter of a middle-class family who, when her father wins a fortune in the sweepstakes, has a fling at society in an exclusive boarding school and at "upper crust" romance with a millionaire playboy.

A chorus of 12 girls of which Virginia Grey is the leader, includes Marilyn Kinsley and Lee Bailey, both of whom studied dancing as stand-ins for Eleanor Powell.

In "The Hardys Ride High" the family inherits a temporary fortune from the estate of an ancestor of Judge Hardy. They take over the mansion in Detroit and live in luxury briefly but with enthusiasm. Mickey promptly essays to become a young-manterday and today that just overhearing a familiar refrain opens the gates of memory. This was one of the reasons for the popularity of the recent film, "Alexander's Ragtime Band." To this nostalgia, also, is largely due the acclaim which has greeted the newest entertainment highlight from Darryl F. Zanuck, "Rose of Washington Square." was crowned "Queen of the Hobbies" by Gov. Wilson as a climax to the Iowa "Hobby Lobby Week." Miss Bates spends her spare time collecting sleigh bells and playing tunes on them.

Five sweet songs will shift the Tommy Dorsey program away from the swing standard when the trombone maestro broadcasts from Raleigh, N. C., Wednesday. The program will be played before a large audience on the stage of the Ambassador theatre and will be heard over WJAZ at 7:30 p. m.

Tommy will play four swing tunes, in addition to the ballads, and one unclassified composition. There is also under way a movement to compose a new song titled "Is This Town Named for the Cigarette?" or "The Cigarette for the town?" but Tommy sees a commercial taint in such a lyric.
