Tommy Dorsey To Play Favorite Dance Tunes Of Two Years Ago; Gang Busters To Offer Interesting Yarn

Rube Goldberg, who became famous as an originator of zany inventions, which he depicted in comic strips, will describe his hoyhood hobby of making cockeyed mechanical creations on Dave Elman's Hobby Lobby, Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. over WJZ.

According to Goldberg, many of his weirdest cartoons were drawings of actual gadgets that he had worked on as a boy. None of them, he admits sadly, ever worked.

Also on the program will be Max Berman, of London, England, whose hobby for the past 40 years has been accumulating replicas of the crown jewels of England; Valetta Hoff, of Minneapolis, who plays music on a bicycle wheel. and Nanctte Steinhauser, daughter of Si Steinhauser, Pittsburgh radio editor, who has a charm bracelet which includes appropriate trinkets from such radio stars as Fred Allen and Jack Benny.

Favorite dance tunes of two years ago will be featured by Tommy Dorsey and his orchestra in their first New York program for several weeks, to be heard over WEAF Wednesday, at 7:30 p. m. The orchestra has just completed an extended tour of southern theatres and ballrooms.

The tunes will include "Once in a While," "Posin"," "Dark Eyes," "Stop, Look and Listen" and "52nd Street." Jack Leonard will sing "If It's the Last Thing I man who sought to "out smart the law" . . . his escape from an lowa town marshal's office . . . his brutal killing of the marshal and his deputy . . . his daring kidnapings and other murders thruout the mid-west . . .

All these events are incidents in the case history of "Handsome" Jack Klutas, which will be dramatized in two parts on Gang Busters, beginning Wednesday over WARC, 7 p. m. Col. H.
