Games in the two Madison Standings sections produced Sunday's highlights of play in the large Pure Home Talent Baseball League.

A pair of upsets—the defeats 3-r of Bowman Dairy and the Oscar Go Mayer Packers - and the heroic work of Don Graack, 17-year old pitcher-outfielder of the Sou young Firemen nine, featured the Pen competition in the city.

Bowman Dairy, champion of the city section last season, bowed to the South Side Monte city of the South

Seven Still Unbeaten
As a result only seven teams, the Firemen and Camp Madison in the city and Waunakee, McFarland, London, Black Earth, and Dodgeville, still are unbeaten in league ranks today.

Graack personally accounted for the Firemen victory. His home run in the seventh gave the Firemen a 5-3 lead, and, after the Simon Pures had tied the score in the eighth, he singled home the winning run with two out in the ninth. The win was the fourth in a row for the surprising young Firemen club and left it as undisputed leader in the East Madison section as a result of 3-F Laundry's upset of the Packers.

McFarlan the Packers.

Camp Madison gained the sole lead in the West Madison section by besting the Gardner Baking co. nine by the same score that marked Bowman Dairy's downfall,

Big Scores Prevail Big scores featured play in the suburban divisions. Springfield turned in the largest score of the league season by trouncing Poynette, 31-5, in a northern section At the same time Waunakee was maintaining its sectional lead with a 29-3 drubbing of Windsor. Mid-dleton trimmed Brooklyn, 20-3, in a southern section game, leaving it tied with York Center, which de-feated Brodhead, 5-2, and Oregon for the divisional lead.

Heroes were plentiful Sunday. Harry Brostrom's ninth inning South Side's win over Bowman Tommy Nee's home run and Johnny Reider's single scoring the winning run brought the Penn Electric Shop its 15-14 win over Ed Phillips & Sons. Manager Roy Winkelman's double drove in the winning run for Johnson Creek's 4-3 win over Sun Prairie. Pitcher Charley Mau homered with one on in the fifth for Arlington's 5-3 win over Lodi.

Injuries Play Part

The injury bugaboo played ball with several of the teams. Winston DeHaven, Penn Electric outfielder suffered a broken right leg while LeRoy Calkins, Camp Madison catcher, was badly spiked in the right knee. Arnold "Gobby" Schmale, hard-hitting shortstop, was out of Mid-dleton's lineup with a broken left wrist received last week while practicing high jumping. DeHaven broke his leg just above the ankle, receiving a compound fracture. in sliding home in the seventh in-

Tommy Kurth, Bowman Dairy catcher, suffered a split finger on the third ball pitched in his team's

West Madison Section

Bowman Dairy held the upperhand against the South Side ag-gregation for eight innings, then saw "Red" Karnes' team come through with four-run ninth in-ning rally to snatch victory. The Dairymen led 7-5 entering the ninth. John Gervasse opened the South Side rally with a single, "Babe" Rohr walked and Harold Olson singled to score Gervasse. Brostrom then drove out his home run. Nick Justo singled, stole second, and scored on Bud Burmeister's single for good measure. Bob Smith, Bowman's leading hitter, and Dave Aide drove out home runs in the third.

A three run spurt in the sixth provided Camp Madison with its win. Curt Dregsvold homered for the Bakers in the seventh with a mate on base. Gerald (Gib) Kennedy. CCC hurler, pitched steady ball after getting off a bad start in the first inning in which the Bakers scored three runs.

Nee's home run and a succeed-ing run on Tinker McCann's life on an error, his theft of second and Johnny Reider's single gave Penn Electric Shop its win. The losers rallied in the ninth but a sensacatch of Pete Accardo's Texas league by Johnny Reider choked off the rally. Sweet homered for the Electrics in the fourth
