Wrestlers Do Stuff for Camp Fund

Jimmy Demetral will battle a young man for the good of young-sters tonight when he wrestles Johnny Bear at Breese Stevens Puncec defeated Pierre Geelhand field in the main event of a fourbout wrestling show for the Kiddie Camp, Madison health project. The show, the first outdoor card of the season, is to open at 8:30 gium by beating Dracutin Mitich, and will present four bouts instead 6-3, 6-2, 6-8, 6-2. of the usual three because Demetral is anxious to draw a large crowd.

The veteran Greek, who has staged nine previous annual benefits for the Kiddie Camp, will donate his share of the gate receipts tonight. Since he arranged 6-2, 6-1, 6-0. the matches, he took an unusually large supply of trouble when he signed to meet Bear in the main bout, for Bear, agile Iowa youth, bout, for Bear, agile Iowa youth, was the ablest foe Demetral met all winter. Jim beat him one fall in their other meeting, but he had great trouble doing so, and Bear so impressed local fans that he has appeared here weekly ever

Duke Ruppenthal will oppose Einer Olson, former "Green Hornet," in the semi-windup which, like the Demetral-Bear clash, will be two out of three falls with a one hour time limit. Ruppenthal, one of the local favorites, can use either scientific or wild tactics in the ring and will be ready for anything the former mystery man does. It was Bear, incidentally, who defeated and unmasked Olson after the latter had won 13 successive bouts.

The younger Olson, Milt, will face little Louis Kodrich in one of the preliminaries. Milt also is popular here, while Kodrch gets no favors despite his small size because he is usually exceptionally rough in the ring.

That same characteristic marks the work of "Jungle Joe" Bauer, who like Kodrick is in Madison on the State street paving crew. Bauer is to face Dan Brown, local grappler, in the opener at 8:30 p.

Suicide Well' to Become New Arboretum

MILWAUKEE- (U.P.) -Authorities prepared today to convert the bottom of the city hall's "suicide well" into an arboretum.

The common council voted 17 to 9 to place potted plants on the first floor of the city hall. The garden was designed to keep persons out of the way of falling bodies.

Five persons have died during the past year as the result of suicide leaps from upper floor railings into the building's well. In one of the fatal jumps a specta-tor was missed narrowly by the plunging body and later died of

A rock garden which was in-cluded in the resolution for the arboretum was eliminated by vote of the council.

Open and other golf classics for the past seven years. But never has he registered such low odds against a meaningless last match for Belcontestant in any tourney as the Germany completed a clean sweep in the best-of-five series with England by winning both of 6-1 he quotes now against Ralph Guldahl's chances of winning the Open for the third straight time Monday's singles matches. Georges Von Metaxa downed Frank Wilde, his week.

Cooper's Odds Shorten Col. Tom, a soft-spoken, rather portly chap in a large black hat, said Guldahl is the greatest golfer he ever saw. His outstanding quality of greatness is his abilit to concentrate on any shot, de-spite pressure. It seems that Ralph's repeat victories in the Open last year and in '37 took Watterson over the jumps. That's why he is quoting 6, 4, 2, and even against big Ralph's chances of finishing first, second, third, and fourth this time. Meanwhile, "Light Horse Harry" Cooper's odds have been shortened a bit because of Harry's victory Sunday in the Goodall at Fresh Meadow. Cooper has been pared from 14-1 to 10-1, and placed at that quotation in the secondchoice bracket with Sammy Snead and Henry Picard, winner of the Metropolitan Open. Cooper's victory wasn't the only reason for the abbreviation of his price. It seems that the lads who wager on cow pasture pool realize that "Light Horse Harry" is playing "hot" golf right now, hence Cooper is sharing the heaviet backing, along with Byron Nelson of the Reading, Pa., one of the year's leading money min-ners.

Wagering Drops This Year Thus far, Watterson has re-ceived little play on Guldahl, take chances on them as he is doing with Nelson whom leaves in the next bracket at 14-1 along with Ed Dudley, Dick Metz, and Ben Hogan.

"Westerners who sent in $100 last year, are making it $50 this time," he explained. "And so on. I don't know what's the cause of it, unless the boys out west are harder pressed for dough. The east is about the same. I expect the play to pick up today
