9:30—Oom less, it will be unbelievably large for a bout of this brand in which barrel-bodied Galento is given virtually no chance against De-troit's dark destroyer who dis-posed of his last three challengers in a total of 6 minutes 53 seconds.

The crowd will be there, contributing a gate of about $350,000, because the fans believe Galento is utterly devoid of fear. They are confident that "Two-Ton" Tony, who calls the champion "a bum," will strive desperately to knock the crown off Louis' head, and that there will be a couple rounds, at least, studded with thrills. Also there is the bare chance that Galento might per-form the greatest miracle since that of the loaves and the fishes knocking out the Brown

If he does that, Chairman John

J. Phelan of the commission warned Tuesday "Galento will be disqualified." "Triple-talk" Pre-lan declared at Tuesdays' meeting point out that, "after all, they'll only be sophomores!" that the referee (probably Arthur Donovan) will be instructed to enforce strictly the rules and regulations governing boxing in New York state. Although a fight in this state can not be won or lost on a foul, the code provides four reasons for loss by disqualifica-tion. And those reasons cover butting, low blows, kneeing, elbowing, back-handing, etc.

Belleville Halts Sauk City Rally to Win, Clinch Title

SAUK CITY-Their ninth inning rally falling short, the Sauk City Cardinals baseball team dropped a 14-12 decision to Belleville here Tuesday night in a free-hitting, free-scoring game. The victory, the sixth in a row in loop play, gave Belleville the undisputed first half flag in the Tri-

County League. Two six-run rallies, each made up of three walks, three hits and an error, were Belleville's win-ning factors. After taking a 3-2 lead in the first and extending it to 5-2 in the third, the Cardinals lost the lead in the fourth when Belleville staged its first six-run spurt, and they failed to figure in the battle again until the ninth That's the main magnet tonight: when they tallied four runs, Ice water in the Orange tavern Johnny Saxer choking off the rally with some masterful pitch-
