Stuart Robertson, English basso, and Glenn Miller and his orchestra, who have shot to national stardom in little more than a year will headline the Magic Key of RCA program Monday at 7:30 p. m. over WJZ.

The full-hour broadcast also will feature Nathaniel Shilkret and the Victor Concert Orchestra, Colonel Lemuel Q. Stoopnagle, the "news-in-rhyme" Rodgers Sisters and LeRoy Miller, popular Philadelphia entertainer, who will introduce Glenn Miller's music.

Robertson, brother of Anna Neagle, well-known British film star, is currently making a brief visit in this country. A sensational success with the British Broadcasting Corporation, which grants him more time each week than any other artist, Robertson also has appeared in motion pictures, among them being "Victoria the Great' and "Queen of Destiny," which which soon will be released in this country by RKO, and has made numerous best-selling recordings for appearance in the United States Sunday, over NBC networks

Thomas and Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, who, in addition to being members of the board are also ton, will air their views about the correct method for capturing trout and other game fish. It has long been Col. Roosevelt's contention that American trout fishermen are handicapped because most of them fish with English flies, the counterparts of which don't exist in the United States and he will argue this and other fine points with Thomas.

blink your eyes.

Time was when the clatter of horses hooves over the dusty trails of the west and the bark of the six-gun were the only accompanisments of banditry in this country.

But today the roar of the motor is as much an adjunct to outlawry as is the stutter of tommy-guns.
