Ann Sothern And Bob Young Coming To Ohio In "Maisie"

Jack Benny Film, "Man About Town" Closes Run Tuesday; New Double Bill Due Wednesday At Sigma

"Maisie" was a gal who knew just what she wanted and set about to get it. "Mazie" was a gal who knew all the answers. Now "Mazie" is the title of a picture coming Wednesday to the Ohio and in it Ann Sothern is featured as the "gal." Robert Young, Ruth Hussey, Ian Hunter and Cliff Edwards are in supporting roles.

Tuesday at the Ohio is the closing day for "Man About Town" starring Jack Benny, Dorothy Lamour, Edward Arnold, "Rochester" and Binnic Barnes plus hundreds of gorgeous chorus girls.

"Code of the Secret Service", a thrilling G-Man story of the government smashing a counterfeit ring, and "Racketeers of the Range," a modern version of cattle rustling, are the two pictures coming Wednesday to the Sigma. Ronald Reagan heads the cast in the first feature and George O'Brien is the star of the latter.

"The Jones Family in Hollywood," starring the popular Jones family and "The Gorilla" featuring the Ritz Brothers are the two pictures now showing at the Quilna. In addition to the double feature program are the Louis vs Galento light pictures. Mark Twain's immortal story Huckleberry Finn" starring Mick-Rooney in the title role, with Walter Connolly and William Frawley in supporting parts, and 'For Love Or Money" featuring lune Lang and Robert Kent, are the two films now at the State.

Jane Withers brings the Withers brand of law and disorder to he screen of the Lyric in "Arizona Wildcat." Featured with Jane is Leo Carrillo.

"Pirates of the Skies" a thrilling aviation drama starring Kent Taylor and Rochelle Hudson, is the other Lyric picture.
