Arlene Francis, Fred Uttal Quiz Tops Wednesday Shows

"What's My Name?" Program Proves Popular; Van Steeden To Be In Charge Of Music For Hour

Arlene Francis and Fred Uttal, conductors of the popular quiz program, "What's My Name?," will bring the second edition of their series to WEAF Wednesday from 8:00 to 8:30 p. m. Miss Francis and Uttal will invite members of the studio audience to identify well-known persons by means of various clues. Music for the program will be under the direction of Peter Van Steeden.

Latest addition to cast of the Edith Meiser script story, "The Life and Love of Dr. Susan," is Robert Regent in the role of Peter Bradford.

CBS plans for ace writers for the Columbia Workshop series include name of Philip Barry who is being sought for an original play. Those set for future scripts are Lord Dunsany, William Saroyan and Dorothy Parker.

Skinnay Ennis has been resignatured to supply the music on Bob Hope's show when it returns to the air.

David Brockman, who has been re-signed to supply the music on the Wednesday night oil show when it returns in the fall, is now in New York for a brief vacation. He may conduct a symphonic concert while in the east.

The Stardusters, a new vocal group on George Jessel's Celebrity Program, have started an indefinite engagement at the Belmont-Plaza, New York.

When Kate Smith returns in the fall a number of dramatic spots on her series will be filled by the Group Theatre Players who were heard on the final few rymore, Virginia Bruce, Conweeks of this season's shows.

In their current engagement at Charlie Ruggles, Bette Davis, n Biltmore spot from where they are heard thrice weekly over CBS, Basil Rathbone, Eddie Cantor, Frankie Masters and his orchestra are featuring "Noon Whistle Astor. Blues," written by Carl Bean, the band's first saxophonist and ar-

A comedian, a bridge expert, a singing pianist and the actress daughter of a famed actor will be George Jessel's guests on his Ce lebrity Program over the NBC-Red network Wednesday at 8:30 p. m. They are Milton Berle, popular wit: Ely Culbertson, card authority; Fats Waller, jazz exponent, and Ruth Mix, daughter of Tom Mix. Music is under the baton of Peter Van Steeden with vocals by The Stardusters.

Effective after the broadcast of June 30, the Star theatre is on an eight-weeks' vacation from the air before returning August 30, same net, same time, to be heard each Wednesday thereafter, from 9 to 10 p, m.

The fall plans for the program are still incomplete, it is expected that the basic show formula will remain the same as it has been during the past year, with Ken Murray acting as master-of-ceremonies for the 60-minute show. The CBS Star theatre made its network debut Oct. 5, 1938, with one of the most impressive casts ever assembled for a weekly radio show. A succession of brilliant guest stars presented over the year's period increased the popularity of the show until today it is one of the top-ranking programs on the air. Among the hosts of Hollywood luminaries who have appeared on the Star theatre are Max Reinhardt, Adolpe Menjou, John Bar-
