By JOE DOMMERSHAUSEN London, last of the undefeated Standings teams in southern state amateur baseball leagues, fell Sunday as three upsets and one record breaking scoring performance featured the Pure Home Talent league play.

Sectional standings were changed only slightly. Considerable good baseball was played in the loop with a mixture of good pitching and heavy hitting. Seventeen games were played in the league Sunday, but only three were reasonably close battles.

Wyocena Geis 17 Runs De Forest, battling to retain a slim chance of winning a sectional flag for the first time, redeemed itself by knocking off London's. previously unbeaten club, 14-9, and turning over the Eastern section lead to McFarland, which checked in with a 13-7 triumph over Cottage Grove's erratic aggregation.
