Blind Pianist To Do "Blues" And Operatic Numbers; Unusual Talent Set For Quiz Programs

Versatile Alec Templeton's musical tricks in his WEAF broadcast Tuesday at 8:30 p. m., will range from blues songs to grand opera.

Singing with his own accompaniment, he will offer "Snow White Rhapsody," his version of "Hil, Ho." Then he will do "Ave Maria" as it might sound with a tenor singing it over short wave, following with a demonstration of a laughing piano.

Billy Mills' orchestra will be heard in a medley including two Rodgers and Hart hits, "Blue Room" and "The Girl Friend." Edna Odell's songs will include "And the Angels Sing" and "This Can't Be Love."

A fishing authority, a double-talker and a cartoonist make up the unique trio to be interviewed by Mort Lewis on "If I Had the Chance" over the NBC-Blue network Tuesday at 9 p. m.

Those to reveal their secret ambitions are S. Kip Farrington, an editor of Field and Stream and Izaak Walton expert; Cliff Nazario, whose garbled wordage is familiar to radio fans, and Walter Berndt, creator of the daily newspaper syndicated comic strip, "Smitty."

The new Andre Kostelanetz tune, "Moon Love," which is one of the "Hit Parade" selections, will be played by Johnny Green and his orchestra as a highlight of the "Johnny Presents" program over WEAF Tuesday at 7 p. m.

Other numbers include "Don't Look Now," "Cinderella Stay in My Arms," "Stairway to the Stars" and "Louisiana Hayride." Vocalists are Floyd Sherman and the Swin Fourteen. The dramatic part of the air embraces another in "The World's Greatest Stories" series adapted by Max Marcin.

Information from half a mile below the surface of the ocean will be on the apt when the Information Please program goes on the air Tuesday night. Dr. William Beebe, distinguished scientist and hero of the bathy-thermograph excursions, as a guest expert.

Another visitor will be Clarence Budington Kelland, author of best sellers who has appeared before to help the regulars of the board, John Kieran and Franklin P. Adams. The program will be broadcast over WJZ at 7:30 p. m.

Dr. Beebe has been curator of ornithology of the New York Zoological society since 1899. He also is director of the society's department of scientific research, author

Albert Dalton of Cleveland, John E. Breidenbach of Dayton, George Snider of Cincinnati and Stanley Ogg of Hamilton were expected to seek re-election as vice presidents. John Rohrback of Cleveland has announced his candidacy for one of the seven vice presidencies.

In his report opening the convalescent Lyden criticized political activity of some moderation leaders, asserting that those who "violated the non-partisan political pact" agreed upon by the organization's executive board.

Fanny Brice, of course, will again frolic thru the airwaves as the irrepressible Baby Snooks, with Hanley Stafford right on hand to play his part as muchly minded Daddy. Meredith Wilson will present his superb musical arrangement, each week as musical director and also, no doubt, will be heard in his "wildered" comedy role.

Berlin Hit, "Second Fiddle" Opens At Quilna Wednesday

Power, Henie, Vallee Head Cast In Film; Sigma To Present Dramatic "6000 Enemies"

"Goodbye Mr. Chips," starring Robert Donat in the title role, will be held over at the Ohio, closing Friday night, it was announced Tuesday afternoon.

Latest picture to gather great music, story and stars to delight enthusiastic audiences in Irving Berlin's "Second Fiddle." This production stars Sonja Henie and Tyrone Power; features Rudy Vallee and Edna May Oliver and introduces a new screen personality in the person of lovely Mary Healy.

Showing for the last times Tuesday and Wednesday is the gay romantic comedy, "Good Girls Go to Paris" starring Joan Blondell and Melvyn Douglas.

"6000 Enemies" a dramatic story of a district attorney who after convicting hundreds of criminals is framed and sent to prison among his enemies, is one of the features scheduled to open Wednesday at the Sigma. Walter Pidgeon is cast in the leading role.

"The Man Who Dared" starring Charlie Grapewin is the second picture due Wednesday at the Sigma. Tuesday is the closing day for the hilarious comedy "The Kid from Kokomo" starring Wayne Morris, Pat O'Brien and Joan Blondell at the Sigma.

The story "Goodbye Mr. Chips" which is now told in the film of the same name at the Ohio, is the story of "Mr. Chips" and the education of youth the world over. Robert Donat plays the kindly schoolmaster who comes to a large English school as a young man and passes his entire life there.

Also at the State is "Boy Trouble" starring Charles Ruggles and Mary Boland. "Newsboys' Home" a heart-warming story of young men who if it were not for the kindness of a newspaper publisher would be forced to roam the streets, is one of the current features at the Lyric. Jackie Cooper heads the cast.

"The Three Musketeers" a musical comedy version of the famous French novel by Alexandre Dumas and starring Don Ameche and the Ritz Brothers, is the other Lyric picture.

Supported by a cast of more than 50 featured players, Walter Pidgeon and Rita Johnson are teamed for the first time in "6000 Enemies," described as the most gripping prison drama to reach the screen since the memorable "Big House" of years ago. The new picture opens Wednesday at the Sigma theatre.

During in its scope, it is a story that could happen in any big city where the forces of vice prevail, yet one that has remained untouched on the motion picture screen until now. As it unfolds with machine-gun rapidity it runs the gamut from law and order administered in the courtroom thru underworld plottings, the framing of respectable citizens and their ordeals within the walls of a state prison.

Settings, faithfully reproduced from actual interiors typical of a modern penitentiary, include the prison courtyard, forecourt, hospital, laundry, machine shops, plumbing shops, record offices, warden's quarters, cell blocks, sluisic room, men's and women's dining halls, the main yard, infirmary wards, kitchens, showers, solitary confinement cells and other prison departments.

THEATRE GUIDE

OHIO—"Goodbye Mr. Chips." SIGMA—"The Kid From Kokomo." QUILNA—"Good Girls Go to Paris." STATE—"Vernon and Irene Castle" and "Boy Trouble." LYRIC—"Newsboys' Home" and "Three Musketeers."

OHIO—"The Sun Never Sets" next feature. SIGMA—"6000 Enemies" and "The Man Who Dared" start Wednesday. QUILNA—"Second Fiddle" previewed Wednesday. STATE—"Confessions of a Nazi Spy" and "King of the Turf" begin Thursday.

OHIO—"West of Santa Fe" and "Dark Rapture" begin Friday. MAJESTIC—"Rosario" and "Gambling Ship" begin Friday.

One of the most popular actors of the screen and one of the most popular novels in recent literature are combined in "Goodbye, Mr. Chips," James Hilton's haunting story in which Robert Donat, fresh from his triumph in "The Citadel," returns to the screen.

"Goodbye, Mr. Chips" tells a story of ideals, romance, tragedy and deep understanding. Donat plays Mr. Chips, who starts as a young man, teaching in a great English school for boys, and passes his life at the work. He becomes the inspiration of boys who grow to manhood and in turn send their sons to him. He shapes the destinies of great men of the future.

He meets and marries a beautiful girl. She dies, and from the tragedy a deep human understanding is born in his heart. Thrills of the World war ensue. The teacher, now grown old, becomes the very spirit of popular education.

"Goodbye, Mr. Chips" brings to the screen Greer Garson, beautiful English actress, who plays the romance sequences with Donat with compelling charm. Donat plays ages ranging from youth to nearly ninety so convincingly that each fairly lives. Little Terry Kilburn, appealing child actor who scored in "Lord Jeff" and as Tiny Tim in "A Christmas Carol," plays successive generations of boys, each growing up and sending his son to his wise teacher. The youngster is forcefully convincing.

Quilna Irving Berlin's new songs, Sonja Henie's sunny brilliance, Tyrone Power's gay romancing, Rudy Vallee's singing and Edna May Oliver's fun - one of the greatest combinations of talent ever gathered for one show is making Irving Berlin's "Second Fiddle" the sensation of the preview critics who have lavished on the film a chorus of praise.

It's something new in screen entertainment, this film which will open at the Quilna theatre on Wednesday, and it's filled with romance, dazzling spectacle, fresh comedy, six new Berlin songs and surprises galore, including sensational tangos on ice, snow rumbas, ice ballets, and the new ballroom dance craze, the "Back to Back."

Being evidences thruout of the magic touch of Darryl F. Zanuck, production chief, the screen play by Harry Tagend is a highly realistic story of film-drom's long search for a girl to play the heroine of a best-selling novel and what happens when she is found.

This is right in line with the new trend, set by Zanuck in his production of Irving Berlin's "Alexander's Ragtime Band," of combining music with a story of real dramatic worth into perfectly blended entertainment.

D'Artagnan, the singing, loving, fighting hero of the musical comedy version of "The Three Musketeers" at the Lyric theatre, really lived!

Alexandre Dumas, who authored the famous novel, wrote a letter to a friend in 1850, six years after finishing the book, in which he related that he had drawn heavily from the memories of one Monsieur D'Artagnan, written in 1701 and 1702, for the material in "The Three Musketeers."

The letter was discovered by a research expert in the archives of a Paris library. She came across it while doing a month's work in preparation for the filming of the picture. D'Artagnan, Dumas said, was in the king's service, and fought his way thru some almost unbelievable adventures in pro-

REST ORDERED FOR PERSHING

AIX EN PROVENCE, France, July 18—(UP)—Gen. John J. Pershing was advised by a physician today to take a complete rest. Pershing had hoped to be able to leave Aix En Provence today after taking the cure, but he suffered a stomach ailment Saturday after a motor ride the previous day.

Now Gen. Pershing hoped to be able to motor to Marseilles and continue to Paris by train.

CHURCH LEADER WILL BE BURIED WEDNESDAY NAPONLEON, O., July 18—(AP)—Funeral services for Rev. P. J. Lankeau, acting president of the Missouri synod of the Lutheran church and pastor of St. Paul's church here since 1908, will be held Wednesday.

Rev. Lankeau died in Kansas City Saturday shortly before he was to have opened the annual convention of the International Walker league. He was 71.

SPY PROBLEMS DISCUSSED WASHINGTON, July 18—(AP)—Director J. Edgar Hoover made the growing problem of international spying the chief topic today for a two-week meeting of men in charge of field offices of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Espionage, Hoover said, has caused the greatest recent increase in the bureau's work.

DANVILLE, Ill., July 18—(AP)—Because he violated a peace pledge made two weeks ago at the request of his family, Andrew Heath, 39, was dead today, slain by police, said, by a blast from a shotgun wielded by his 16-year-old daughter, Alta.

Leut. Leo Bireline said the girl admitted she fired the fatal shot after telling her father: "Well, daddy, this is what I said I was going to do."

Bireline said the girl, held without formal charge, told him Heath, a hick, a yard worker, came home drunk and "started abusing me and the other children."
