Joe Frisco Will Be Guest On Al Pearce Hour Monday

Well Known Comic Will Swap Banter With Cast; Blondie And Family To Buy Used Car --They Hope

Joe Frisco will return as guest star on the Al Pearce program Monday from 7 to 7:30 p. m. on WEAF. The wellknown stage comic will again engage in banter with Pearce, as he did on the program of July 10 when his inimitable adlib stammering won the plaudits of the visible and air

Another new feature of the Pearce jamboree will be a golf skit, featuring Elvia Allman, who is often heard as the housewife in the Elmer Blurt sketches. Elmer and Kitty O'Neil will also add their comedy to the program.

Bob Zurke and his Bluebird Recording Orchestra will make their radio debut during the Magic Key of RCA program Monday, from 7:30 to $:30 p. m. over WJZ.

The broadcast also will feature The Smoothies, singing trio; Ed Gardiner, comedian; Nathaniel Shilkret and the Victor Concert Orchestra; Jane and Virginia Rodgers, in another "Rhyming the News" sequence; LeRoy Miller, Philadelphia radio star, and Colonel Lemuel Q. Stoopnagle. Zurke, young swing planist, was with Bob Crosby's orchestra until April of this year, at which time he decided to form his own band. Zurke has been associated with the. piano, from which point he conducts, since the age of five when, billed as a child prodigy, he made his debut at a concert in Detroit which was attended by Ignace Paderewski. He took his regular job at the age of 12 as a pianist in a Detroit theatre orchestra and two years later began playing regularly over NBC. The Smoothies - Babs, Charlie
