Three Plays To Be Staged As Saturday Radio Feature

Vox Pop Quiz Show Will Conduct Dissertation On America's Most Popular Sport — Fishing

Sidney Lumet, star of the recent Broadway hit "My Heart's in the Highlands," by William Saroyan, will play the lead in "The Brat," second of three plays by Arch Oboler to be presented on Saturday from 8:30 to 9:00 p. m., over WEAF. First drama in the group will be "Mr. Pip," with Ray Collins, outstanding stage and radio actor, in the lead role. "Rich Kid," originally played by Freddie Bartholomew and the "Dead End" Kids on the Rudy Vallee hour, will be repeated by popular request as the concluding drama of the broadcast.

America's most popular sport, fishing, will be discussed in all its phases by Parks Johnson and Wally Butterworth, conductors of the Vox Pop quiz show, when they set up their portable microphone in the lobby of the RCA exhibit building at the World's Fair on Saturday, from 8:00 to 8:30 p. m., over WEAF. Compleat anglers from various sections of the country are expected to answer questions concerning the inevitable discussion of salt vs. fresh water sport.

Benny Goodman will bring his swing troupe to NBC's Hollywood Studios for the Camel Caravan broadcast on Saturday, from 9:00 to 9:30 p. m., EDST, over WEAF. The band has just completed an engagement at the Golden Gate International Exposition in San Francisco and will remain in Hollywood for the next three weeks.
